Governor Race Settled---Unofficially . . .

VOTE IN---IT'S BROOKS

. . . Margin 1,500-1,700; Vic Not Conceding

ANDERSON . . . Bad News.

By Don Walton

"There will be no wholesale head-rolling" at the Statehouse, Governor-elect Ralph Brooks declared Friday evening.

The McCook educator was tabbed unofficial winner of the tight gubernatorial race earlier in the day as final mail counting was completed in all but one of Nebraska's 93 counties.

Brooks' lead over two-term Republican Gov. Victor Anderson varied from 1,543 to 1,623 in tabulation by the major wire services.

With Greeley County yet to report, according to the Associated Press, Brooks led by a 211,097 to 209,474-vote count.

He held a 212,802 to 211,259 lead, according to United Press International.

Anderson's mail count bulge stood at 4,210 to 2,544, or a 62.3 percentage.

Brooks won only 11 of the 92 counties totaling mail votes, including 3 (Furnas, Logan and Washington) which he had not won in election day balloting.

Official On Dec. 1

Official results won't be released until Dec. 1, with the possibility of a contested election and its ensuing recount hanging in the balance.

Victory for the 60-year-old superintendent of McCook schools and president of McCook Junior College placed a Democrat in the governor's chair for the first time since 1941.

Speaking to The Star by telephone from his home in McCook after his return from the junior college's final football game of the season (they lost), Brooks said:

"I will now devote my time to a consideration of the many problems confronting the state of Nebraska.

"I will not be revolutionary.

"I will be concrete, definite and progressive in the policies which I will present to the incoming Legislature."

Traffic Safety

Brooks indicated that a new traffic safety program, for which he campaigned during the gubernatorial struggle, will be a part of that policy.

The Democrat, a champion orator who used his speaking prowess in a final television drive on populous eastern Nebraska, noted that "the ballots clearly indicate" victory.

"I'm a lawyer. And it appears the evidence is in," he told The Star.

Noting that Gov. Anderson is not conceding, Brooks said, "I'll continue to wait."

Changes

He declined to discuss what personnel changes might be in the offing at the Statehouse or what individuals he might bring into key appointive positions.

Brooks suggested that there was little chance of major error in the gubernatorial count because of the continual rechecking process which county clerks and wire services have pursued for the past 10 days.

"Those ballots have been counted until they are dog-eared," he said.

To Speak

Several speaking engagements are on tap for Brooks, including an address before the National Reclamation Assn., in Houston, Tex., next Wednesday.

He will address the Nebraska Citizens Council in Lincoln Friday and the Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce Nov. 24.

Brooks will keynote the Nebraska State Education Assn., representative assembly in Lincoln Dec. 5.

Inauguration is scheduled Jan. 8. Until then, Brooks said, he'll "continue running the city schools."

RALPH BROOKS—GOVERNOR-ELECT

Vic Not Sure About Recount

. . . Has 10 Days To Decide

"Flooded by telephone calls" urging him not to concede and offering financial aid if he elects to trigger a recount, Gov. Victor Anderson was left Friday with 10 days to decide.

"I don't know yet" whether I'd like to see a recount, the two-term governor told The Star.

(If there is to be a contested election, Anderson would almost certainly not be the contestor. However, it is assumed that no elector will contest without the governor's permission.)

May Wait

"It should be considered. It may have to wait until Nov. 24 (the final day in which to contest)," Anderson said.

The 56-year-old former Lincoln mayor and state legislator pointed out that the vote thus far was unofficial.

He noted that the result now hangs on less than one per cent of a vote exceeding 420,000, that one vote change in his favor out of every 300 would alter the decision.

"Everybody advises me not to concede," the governor said, adding that he picked up an estimated 8,000 ballots at the final count two years ago.

Offer Help

Anderson said "quite a number" of people have called him, saying they would be willing to contribute to help pay the cost of a recount, estimated to exceed $30,000.

"I have not solicited any financial aid," he pointed out.

Anderson also questioned the cost estimate as possibly too high.

Meanwhile, party leaders said serious discussion of whether to contest might take place next week.

BURNEY, LARSEN HOLD EDGE

Results in two hotly-contested Statehouse races remained the same Friday, with mail counting pointing to victories for Lt. Gov. Dwight Burney and Democratic treasurer candidate Richard Larsen.

In the lieutenant governor's race, Burney had a 3,859 margin. Associated Press totals reached 200,804 for the incumbent and 196,945 for Democrat Frank Sorrell.

Larsen's edge held at 2,614. He totaled 194,485 votes while Republican J. Monroe Bixler held 191,871.

Last Home Outing For These 6 Nebraska Footballers

NU Pitt's Last Obstacle To Sunny New Year's

By Don Bryant

Nebraska's Cornhuskers, in the familiar role of the underdog, wind up their 1958 Memorial Stadium program Saturday afternoon against the always-rugged Pittsburgh Panthers.

Game time is 2 p.m., and a crowd of 23-25,000 — depending on the weather—will gather for the season's home finale.

John Michelosen's Panthers are a 22-point favorite over Bill Jennings' Scarlets and there are those who consider this a conservative figure since Pitt is gunning for a post-season bid and will be anxious to impress the bowl pickers.

Be that as it may, there seems little hope for a Nebraska victory against the bulky Panthers who just last week tripped Notre Dame. Prior to that the coal-country boys toppled UCLA, Holy Cross, Minnesota and West Virginia; tied potent Army and lost to Michigan State and Syracuse.

Nebraska has managed only two wins this fall, er and nipped Iowa State, 7-6.

Saturday will mark Pittsburgh's 10th visit to Lincoln since the series was inaugurated in 1921, and that brings to mind another ominous note. Nebraska has never beaten the Panthers at home, although the Huskers have managed scoreless ties here in 1928, 1930 and 1932.

All told, Pitt has a 15-3-3 bulge in the won-loss statistics.

Nebraska's situation remains about the same. The Huskers are shy of depth and several key players are still handicapped by injuries and will probably see very limited service — if they play at all. This includes the top but those came at home so the Huskers will have that advantage in their favor. The Scarlets whipped Penn State —which Pitt tackles next week—14-7 in the season open-two left halfbacks, Pat Fischer and Max Martz.

Carroll Zaruba will carry the load at that spot, the same chore he performed in fine fashion at Kansas last week after being shifted from fullback.

The highly-touted Panthers will have a massive weight advantage over the undermanned Cornhuskers. All three Pitt lines average in the vicinity of 209 pounds.

Six Scarlets will be playing their final home game—Capt. Dick McCashland, Larry Naviaux, George Harshman, Roy Stinnett, Dennis Emanuel and Dean Flock, who will not suit up becuase of an injury.

Ike Said 'Flouting' U.S. Law

Washington (UPI) — Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) accused President Eisenhower of flouting the law by allowing the Air Force to withhold portions of a report criticizing its missile program.

But Rep. Leslie C. Arends (R-Ill) promptly defended the President's refusal to force the Air Force to deliver complete copies of the document to U.S. Comptroller General Joseph Campbell.

Arends also assailed Moss for what he said was "the implication that the Congress might use the threat of tying up or reducing defense appropriations" to pry loose the information.

Moss had suggested that a "rider" — or amendment — be considered on the next Air Force money bill to require release of the report to the General Accounting Office.

Arends, House Republican whip and senior GOP member of the House Armed Eervices Committee, said Eisenhower's stand was proper in light of the traditional separation of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government.

NW MIGHT GET LOTS OF SNOW

The snow warnings are out.

Old man winter has apparently brought a sudden end to the Indian Summer weather in Nebraska, as forecasts of up to 6 inches or more of heavy snow were out for the northwest part of the state Saturday.

The inclement weather was expected to begin before morning and spread over the southern and central south part of the state Saturday. Highs are expected to range from the 30s in the northwest to 40s in the southeast.

Imperial managed to score in the 60s Friday with the state's high reading of 62. Chadron reported a low mark of 24.

Lincoln had little variation in temperature with a high of 58 and a low of 48.

Von Busch Takes Stand, Tells Of Early Warnings

Caril Retells Meyer Killing On Brief Return To Stand

By Del Harding

Caril Fugate's brother-in-law testified at her murder trial Friday that he attempted to force his way into her home at 924 Belmont last Jan. 25 but stopped after Caril pleaded "My mother's life is in your hands."

Robert Von Busch of 2119 L, who is married to Caril's sister, Barbara, said he and his wife and baby had been to the home earlier that day but had been refused admittance by Caril.

He said Caril had said on the first occasion that Caril, who appeared "afraid of something," told them to leave because she didn't want her mother to get "hurt."

The second time, he said, he and Rodney Starkweather, brother of Charles Starkweather, went to the home to again try to see what was wrong.

Door Moves

Von Busch said he told Caril he wanted to see her mother (Mrs. Marion Bartlett) and put his foot in the front door as Caril opened it to let the dog out. But then he said Caril made the statement about her mother's life being in his hands.

The 19-year-old garbage hauler said the door behind Caril "moved" while he was talking with her. But he said later he did not see anyone behind the door.

His testimony highlighted the closing day of the third week of her Lancaster District Court trial.

Meyer Killing Retold

Caril herself took the stand again late in the afternoon, but her testimony was confined to again detailing the death of August Meyer, Bennet farmer, who was one of 10 victims of the January murder rampage on which she accompanied Charles Starkweather.

Caril said Starkweather shot Meyer from behind as Meyer was about to walk into his farm house Jan. 27.

She said there was no apparent reason for the murder,

Negro Held In Death Of Two Women

Richmond, Va. (AP)—A Negro maid pointed to an itinerant Negro at state police headquarters here Friday night and said "that's the man" who shot two white women to death in their isolated home near Bowling Green.

Two murder warrants were immediately served on the Negro, who identified himself as William Brown, 56, of Shelbyville, Tenn. He was spirited from Richmond to an undisclosed lockup.

Edna Mae Parker, 18-year-old maid hired on a trial basis Monday by Mrs. James S. Brooks, 33, said Brown was the man who calmly shot her mistress and Mrs. Katherine S. Brooks, 74, while they were tied together in the dining room of their home Thursday night.

Brown, clad in brown ragged pants and a brightly colored T-shirt, admitted being in the Brooks' historic home at the time of the shootings. But he denied intentionally killing either of the women after holding 8 persons as terrified hostages for over two hours.

County Road Auto Crash Kills Woman

. . . Near Clarks

Clarks, Neb. (AP)—Mrs. Gertrude Kaminsky, 58, Clarks, was killed Friday when her car and one driven by Darwin Williams, 43, Clarks, collided at a rural road intersection.

Williams was not seriously hurt. The accident was a half mile west and a mile north of Clarks.

The death brought Nebraska's traffic toll to 294 compared with 250 on Nov. 15 of last year.

8 Parachute From C119

Ogden, Utah (AP) — An Air Force C 119 transport plane developed trouble in one engine over Wyoming Friday and crashed near Swan Valley, Idaho, about 250 miles north of here. Eight men aboard the plane parachuted from the aircraft, presumably somewhere in northeastern Utah.

Ground parties were searching for them, but had found no trace hours later.

Ike Sure To Seek Tax Hike

Washington (AP) — Administration officials indicated Friday President Eisenhower is almost certain to ask Congress to increase the federal gasoline tax so superhighway construction won't strain the budget.

They also disclosed that Budget Director Maurice Stans and Postmaster General Summerfield conferred this week on the possibility of urging another increase in postal rates.

The search for additional revenue has been spurred by the prospect of a record peacetime budget deficit of more than 12 billion dollars in the current fiscal year ending next June 30.

Lower Deficit

Officials hope the budget which Eisenhower sends to Congress in January will indicate a substantially lower deficit for the 1960 fiscal year which begins next July 1. The impact of any revenue increases provided by Congress at this next session wouldn't be felt until fiscal 1960.

Sources at the Treasury and Budget Bureau said a proposal to increase the gas tax is one of about a dozen measures which Eisenhower may include in his 1959 legislative program. They emphasized no final decisions have been made. The President will have to act soon, however, so budget blueprints can be completed.

One informant said the plan currently under discussion would increase the gas 1 to 1½ cents a gallon. The present tax is 3 cents a gallon.

The Weather

NEBRASKA: Heavy snow likely in northwest Saturday with accumulations of 6 inches or more possible. Mostly cloudy Saturday in southeast and occasional rain or rain changing to snow Saturday. Mostly cloudy some snow continuing Saturday night. Windy and colder Saturday and Saturday night. Highs Saturday 30s northwest to 40s southeast.

LT&T Strike Vote Count Is Continuing

...Outcome Not Known Until Monday

Tabulation of strike ballots from Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co., union workers continued Friday as company and union proposals were made public.

Outcome of strike balloting by some 1,200 company employes won't be revealed until Monday at the earliest, according to Elvin O. Wait, president of the Communication Workers of America local.

Wait said he expected a favorable vote, empowering union officials to call a strike if "all other efforts" to reach "a reasonable agreement" fail.

Door Still Open

Neither Wait nor LT&T Vice President Merle M. Hale would comment on whether they believed a strike would result.

"We're always open to new negotiation," Wait said. Hale declined to discuss the possibility of new company-union talks.

Meanwhile, in a letter to its employes, LT&T revealed these company proposals:

—Eliminate posting for vacancies, a process which allows applications for filling job openings instead of giving the company full discretion to promote "the highest qualified available employe . . . without unnecessary delay."

—Eliminate the word "consecutive" from contracts calling for scheduling on 5 consecutive work days.

—Call for an 18 months contract instead of the usual 12 months pact.

—A wage offer, calling for a range of weekly increases from $1.50 to $4 for male employes and from $1 to $2.50 for female employes.

—A change in contract enabling the company to require "a few employes" to report at the work location rather than at a company building.

—Change from one to two hours or more for meal allowance; provide for 30 days notice when leave of absence is requested for union business if period of absence is beyond 30 days; add David City to the list of exchanges for crew headquarters.

Wait said that company list was accurate.

Union proposals, outlined in the company letter and the Union's Bargaining Bulletin No. 7:

—A substantial wage increase (which Wait said amounted to $2 to $4.50 more weekly for plant and related schedules and $2 to $3 a week more for traffic and related schedules.)

—Three weeks' vacation after 10 years' service, and 4 weeks' vacation after 15 years' service.

—Narrow geographical wage differentials.

—Improve pay treatment for hours worked on holidays, and add Good Friday as a recognized holiday.

—Provide for a limited number of days to post a notice of the person selected to fill a vacancy.

—Improve pay treatment for employes in accounting, commercial and personnel departments performing work of employes in higher job classifications.

—Improve pay treatment for evening and night work (plant and traffic departments).

—Improve termination pay provision.

The LT&T letter, signed by Hale, noted, "It would appear . . . that the question of wages is not a serious deterrent to the reaching of an agreement."

Rate Relief Pending

Wait agreed. "But, all the company's other proposals would be retrogressive," he said.

Hale's letter referred to the company's "steadily declining earnings over the past year in explaining its position in asking an 18-month contract.

"In the face of the need for additional revenue, the company has still indicated a willingness to propose wage increases to the union which will cost approximately a quarter of a million dollars on an annual basis.

Net Earnings Hit

"It is probable that such rate relief that the Nebraska State Railway Commission (with which LT&T has filed a rate increase request) may grant cannot be placed into effect for several months.

"Based on current income, the wage proposal as it now stands will wipe out a substantial portion of the net earnings of the company.

"Therefore, major rate relief is imperative to maintain the financial health of our company and to meet a commitment for higher wages. It is for this reason that an 18 months contract is reasonable and justified."

The union had authorized the strike vote this week after company-union talks collapsed. The contract expired Saturday. Employes are now working on a day-to-day basis.

VON BUSCH ON STAND

and she was so frightened she "couldn't move."

"Had you ever seen anyone shot or killed before?" asked defense Atty. John McArthur.

"No, sir," she replied.

She said she started to "walk away" after Meyer was shot but said when Starkweather yelled at her to come she did because she was afraid. She said she then accompanied Starkweather on a search of the Meyer home.

Caril Threatened

"He said if I didn't do what he said I'd get what Mr. Meyer got," she related.

Caril will complete her defense testimony Monday and will then be cross examined by County Atty. Elmer Scheele. She is expected to be on the stand all day.

Scheele is expected to call rebuttal witnesses Tuesday and it now appears the case could go to the jury Wednesday—but more likely Thursday.

Caril is charged with premeditated murder and also with murder while in the perpetration of a robbery as Starkweather's accomplice in the Jan. 27 shooting of Robert Jensen, 17, of Bennet.

Police Informed

Von Busch also testified that he went to Police Headquarters Jan. 25 after being refused admittance to the Marion Bartlett home for the second time. He said he told Police Capt. Joe Harbaugh that he and his wife had not been allowed to enter and about the "life in your hands" statement.

Von Busch said Harbaugh told him he would have the matter investigated and for him to return in half an hour.

Von Busch said he and Rodney Starkweather then drove to 10th and Belmont and watched while two policemen went up to the Bartlett home, talked a few minutes to Caril and then left.

Officers Hear Excuse

He said they then returned to Police Headquarters and asked Harbaugh what the officers had found out. Harbaugh, Von Busch said, told him Caril said the family was sick with the flu and under a doctor's care.

Von Busch said Harbaugh also told him that he was supposed to leave the Bartletts alone because Von Busch had "trouble" with them before.

He said he and Rodney then, in answer to a request telephoned to his wife by Charles Starkweather, drove to Tate's Service Station 8 miles south of Lincoln to pick up Charles. But he said Charlie wasn't there so they left.

Von Busch Finds Bodies

Von Busch said he to this day does not know why Charlie sent them on the "wild goose chase."

Von Busch said he alone made another trip to the police Jan. 27 and again talked with Harbaugh. He said Harbaugh told him the Bartletts had probably gone on a short trip, and for him to "leave them alone."

He said he left and later that day he and Rodney again went to the Bartlett home where this time they discovered the family's bodies in sheds behind the house.

Charlie Was Fighter

He said Starkweather was quick tempered and a "funny guy to get along with . . . if he didn't like somebody's looks he'd change them." He explained Starkweather would pick a fight with such persons.

He said Caril often accompanied him and his wife on dates before they were married, and said Caril was a "very nice little girl" and that he didn't mind taking her along.

Other witnesses who testified Friday were Von Busch's wife Barbara (Caril's sister), the wife of Douglas, Wyo., sheriff Earl Heflin, Emil F. Leypoldt of 721 So. 18th and Mrs. Emma Wisehart of 922 Belmont.

Family Told 'Leave'

Mrs. Von Busch said when she, her husband and baby son went to the Bartlett home Jan. 25 Caril told her "if you know what's best you'll go away so mother don't get hurt." She said Caril got "furious" and kept telling them to leave.

She said when they walked back to their taxi to leave, Caril came out of the house and told them she was sorry she was so "crabby" but said she "had" to be. She said Caril then "went back in the house crying" and shut the door.

Mrs. Von Busch said Caril loved her baby half-sister, Betty Jean Bartlett, and had bought Betty Jean her first pair of shoes.

Mrs. Heflin Testifies

Mrs. Hazel Heflin, the sheriff's wife, said Caril was delivered into her custody as jail matron Jan. 29. Caril, she said, was "very nervous and upset and in shock."

She said a doctor was summoned and he gave her a sedative. She said Caril slept from about 4 p.m. Jan. 29 to 8 or 9 a.m. Jan. 30.

McArthur made a point of the fact that Caril took 3 more pills on the same day she signed an extradition waiver agreeing to return to Nebraska for trial.

Schoolmen Rap University Early Rushing Practices

The resolutions committee of the Nberaska Assn. of School Administrators Friday night adopted a proposal to be presented to Chancellor Clifford Hardin and the University of Nebraska Board of Regents regarding fraternity and sorority rushing of high school students.

Dr. Merle Stoneman, professor of school administration and elementary education at the University, and secretary of the NASA, said that he has been instructed to send letters containing the resolution to Chancellor Hardin and the Regents.

The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, fraternity and sorority rushing at the University of Nebraska has caused many local, social, community and school problems,

Whereas, the present system of rushing does not present to the rushees the proper collegiate picture of fraternity and sorority life and membership,

Whereas, the social demands of fraternities and sororities are contributing cause of first year students neglecting studies,

Whereas, it is the opinion of many school administrators that rushing activities prior to actual university enrollment and first year pledging have many undesirable features,

Therefore be it resolved that, Nebraska Association of School Administrators request the Chancellor and the Board of Regents to study this problem and take such action as may be needed to correct this situation.

Dr. Mel Everingham, asst. superintendent of schools at Sidney, chairman of the resolutions committee said that several administrators had asked the resolutions committee to draw up such a proposal.

William Bogar, principal of Lincoln High School, who is a member of the committee, and has appeared before the Inter-Fraternity Council at the University regarding the rushing problem, said, "I think that it's a situation which no doubt needs attention or the NASA would not have passed this resolution."

Chancellor Hardin was not available for comment on the resolution.

WITNESS IN SHOOTING REPORTS TO SHERIFF

A plea from the Lancaster County sheriff's office to the woman who reportedly saw a youth shoot and wound a 71-year-old fisherman on Salt Creek Thursday was answered Friday by a Lincoln woman.

Dep. Sheriff Robert Anderson told The Star Friday night that he received a call from a woman who said she witnessed the shooting of Harold Nelson of 4442 Calvert and arranged an interview with her.

The sheriff's office had issued a plea to the woman who saw the youth leave the scene and also to the youth himself to contact authorities.

Nelson said he was fishing near the Salt Creek bridge over Van Dorn St. and heard shots in the area. He was then struck in the right side of the head by a bullet, evidently fired from a small caliber gun.

Nelson said he looked up to the bridge, saw a young man standing there and yelled "Hey, you shot me!" The youth turned and left. Nelson said he heard a car start but could not see it.

Nelson did not lose consciousness and started to his own car to go to a doctor. While he was preparing to leave, a woman drove up and offered to help him find a doctor. The woman, Nelson told Dep. Anderson, said she saw the young man and his car. Nelson, however, could not give a description of the youth who shot him or of the woman who saw the shooting.

Nelson suffered a two-inch scalp wound, but was not hospitalized.

Omaha Agent May Put Up Larsen's Bond

Omaha (AP) — Professional bondsman L. S. (Bob) Cornett said he "can—and probably would" write a million-dollar bonod for Richard R. Larsen, the apparent state treasurer-elect.

He said he is agent for two Eastern companies through which he could arrange the bond. He would charge $5,000 for a bond good for two years.

This is the maximum allowed by state law. The state has been paying $2,500 for bonds on recent state treasurers.

Did Not Bid

The state received no bids for Larsen's bond at a Wednesday letting. Cornett said he received an invitation to bid several months ago but did not do so.

Cornett said he was approached "last week by an official of the Democratic Party" who wanted to know if he could arrange for the bond.

Once Barred

Cornett, who has held several posts in the Douglas County Democratic organization, for many years has written bonds on major criminals and on thousands other lesser citizens involved in troubles with the law.

At times Cornett has been barred from doing business in local courts, but his bonds are now being accepted.

Omahan Says He Stabbed Alaska Cabbie

Fairbanks, Alaska (AP) — A dying taxicab driver called faintly over his car radio Thursday night: "I've been stabbed. Send help."

A fellow driver raced to the scene but Edward Joseph White, 53, half-owner of a Fairbanks cab company, died shortly after.

Four hours later Pfc. Richard A. Lapointe of Omaha, who had been AWOL from Eielson Air Force base the past week, gave himself up at the base gate more than 30 miles away.

He was turned over to civil authorities.

U.S. Dist. Atty. George Yeager said he admitted plunging a butcher knife into White's chest with robbery as a motive. He fled in panic into the woods in 37-degree below zero weather, throwing his blood-stained gloves away in the 10-inch snow.

He was arraigned in commissioner's court and bond set at $20,000.

Senate Labor Probers Call 7 Nebraskans

Washington (AP) — Seven Nebraskans are scheduled to testify before the Senate Labor Rackets Committee next Tuesday in connection with its current inquiry into secondary boycotts.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb), a member of the committe and author of bills in past sessions to outlaw such boycotts, identified them as:

Al May of Omaha, attorney for Clark Brothers Transfer Co. of Norfolk, Neb.; Foy Clark, head of the Clark Brothers firm; Tom and Glen Coffey of Alma, Neb., connected with the Coffey Transfer Co.; G. Howard Johnson of Omaha, a former trucker; Dean Joy of the Darling Transfer Co., Auburn, Neb.; and Albert Parker, head of teamsters local 554 in Omaha.

Also scheduled to appear the same day is John Bridge of Chicago, a labor-management consultant who specializes in motor carrier problems.

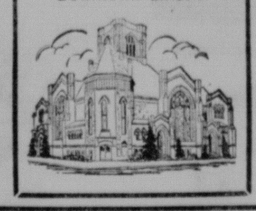

Their testimony is expected to deal with labor difficulties in Nebraska in connection with the interchange of freight between union and non-union carriers.

Official County Vote Disclosed

Richard R. Larsen of Omaha, apparently successful Democratic candidate for state treasurer, topped State Sen. Monroe Bixler of Harrison by only a 5 vote plurality in Lancaster County.

With a heavy mail vote in his favor, 467 to 251, Bixler had appeared to have an unofficial edge of some 130 votes, but the official county canvass put Larsen ahead 19,794 to 19,789.

Gov. Victor Anderson outpolled Democrat Ralph G. Brooks 46 to 269 in the mail vote, but Brooks the unofficial winner in the state contest, ran ahead of the incumbent 22,275 to 18,885 in the official county canvass.

Democratic challenger Frank Sorrell ran ahead of Lt. Gov. Dwight W. Burney with an official 20,554 to 19,823 votes. Burney garnered the mail vote 461 to 265.

Democrat Ralph Harlan had an official plurality of 669 votes over Republican Jack Schuetz in the close County Commissioner race in the 2nd district, though Schuetz had the mail vote 441 to 253.

Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme officially edged Donald E. Devries by 669 votes in the 20th District race for the Legislature. Devries polled the mail vote 263 to 210.

Louis Roper Heads Dimes Campaign

Louis L. Roper of 3425 Otoe St. was announced Friday as the Lancaster County director for the 1959 March of Deimes by Morris D. Siegel, chairman of the county chapter for the National Foundation.

Roper

At the same time Siegel disclosed that the board of directors of the local chapter has fully endorsed the National Foundation's program, which is expanding its campaign to tackle health problems on a wider front and no longer will confine its activities to polio.

He added, however, that "we would like to make it clear that the National Foundation will not abandon polio patients."

Solution of the problems of arthritis and birth defects are the immediate new goals of the campaign, he said, but added that the organization will also follow leads as they develop in the fields of virus research and studies of the central nervous system.

Roper is active in University of Nebraska affairs and civic affairs. He is secretary of the Extra Point Club, treasurer of the Lincoln Community Concerts Assn., member of the board of directors of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and president of the Lincoln chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

Contract Awarded

Washington (UPI) — The Army announced the award of a $1,570,000 contract for the construction of launching, assembly and storage facilities for its anti-missile missile. The contract went to C. H. Leavell and Co. of El Paso, Tex. The facilities will be built at the White Sands missile range in New Mexico.

6 Counties Redistrict OKd, 3 Not

Redistricting proposals submitted by committees of 6 counties were approved Friday, and 3 disapproved by the State Committee on School District Reorganization at a meeting at the State Capitol.

Included in those approved, and recommended for an election, was a proposal for redistricting in the Wausa area which would see 13 districts in Knox County and two districts in Cedar County combined into one district.

The district would have an assessed valuation of about $4 million and a total enrollment of 389 pupils.

Knox County districts involved are 73, 80, 116, 118, 122, 123, 124, 132, 134, 135, 158, 159 and 76 (Wausa) and Cedar County districts 62 and 80.

A petition proposal submitted by Valley and Greeley county committees calling for the merging of North Loup district with the Scotia district to create a single class 3 district was approved and the boards of education were commended on their action.

Other petition proposals approved included the following:

Seward County: (with commendation) attach districts 8, 11, 12, 30, 41, 46 and 90 to Dist. 9, Seward.

Seward County: Attach Dist. 49 to Dist. 5 (Milford), 9 (Seward), and 30.

Clay County: Attach Dist. 78 to Dist. 18 (Fairfield), and attach Dist. 77 to Dists. 12 (Edgar) and 18 (Fairfield).

Petition proposals not approved.

Phelps County: Create a new district from Dists. 37 and 47.

Harlan County: Attach Dist. 66 to Dist. 8.

Nemaha County: Attach Dist. 35 to Dist. 33.

A petition referred by the Seward County Committee to attach Dist. 80 to Dist. 5 (Milford) was returned with the recommendation that the signers withdraw it since Dist. 80 apparently is now legally a part of the Beaver Crossing District following a successful election to form a new district there.

City Charges Bates With Assault, Too

. . . Pleads Innocent

Charles A. Bates, 58, of Rt. 5 Lincoln pleaded innocent Friday in Municipal Court to an amended complaint charging use of foul, obscene and abusive language and assault in a threatening and menacing manner.

Judge Richard Johnon set Bates' trial for Nov. 19 after the defense attorney moved for a continuance to prepare a case in view of the added count.

"A man's reputation is at stake," the attorney added.

City Prosecutor Tom Gorham amended the language count to include "and did quarrel, curse and swear" and added the assault count.

Bates is charged in connection with an Oct. 25 parking ticket incident involving a Lincoln "meter maid."

Bates, an unsuccessful candidate for Lancaster County commissioner, has charged the complaint filed before the Nov. 4 election, was a "political smear."

Attorney Criticizes U.S. Newspapers For Printing Evidence Before Trial

French Lick, Ind. (AP) — An attorney criticized the newspaper industry for printing evidence in criminal cases before defendants come to trial.

"Under the guise of informing the public, editors are making it next to impossible to secure an impartial trial in any important criminal case," said Albert West of the Massachusetts Bar Assn.

He said newspapers should wait before carrying "such pertinent information as the defendant's record if he has one, or any confession he may have made."

His statement was challenged by delegate after delegate attending the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. silver anniversary convention.

Misscarriages

Asked whether there had been any miscarriages of justice because such news was printed, West replied, "Yes."

Wilson Wyatt, counsel for the Louisville Courier Journal and Times, disagreed with him.

"There may have been some transgressions of common taste," said Wyatt, during a panel discussion. "I doubt, however, if there were miscarriages. If the judge does his job right, he can prevent it.

"If we have to err on one side or the other, let us not err on the side of freedom of speech, the foundation of our nation."

Wyatt recommended newspapers follow his philosophy: "When in doubt — print. That doesn't mean to print indiscriminately."

West warned that the practice often has serious repercussions.

"Too many judges hesitate in the face of their clear-cut duty," he added. "These same judges would not hesitate to impose a heavy fine, or jail for contempt, a photographer who takes a picture of a defendant in a courthouse building."

He said the printing of such news "is a serious problem. It threatens the entire fabric of our system of fair and impartial justice regardless of race, creed, color or social standing. It is hurting America."

The editors argued that by not printing details "they could not fulfill their duty to give the public information to which it is entitled."

A Choice Of Methods

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The Reds of Russia must have taken a count on the public's pulse and determined that a new shot in the arm was needed to maintain the people's spirit. But whether that is the reason or not, the Soviet government has come forth with a new seven-year plan for economic development of the country.

The plan gives the people visions of the shortest working week in the world and general over-all prosperity. Significantly, the plan says nothing about freedom. The words and advice of the Communist leaders are expected to provide all the guidance the people need. The general population has no need to think for itself or exercise its own initiative or imagination. This, of course, is the reason for claims by Vice President Nixon and others that the Communist system contains within itself the seeds of its own destruction. It is the reason for Adlai Stevenson and other visitors to the Iron Curtain countries reporting that the Communist system is based on unrealities.

An 'Unreal' Society

Along with the seven-year plan, the Moscow press and radio also covered the status of former Premier Nikolai Bulganin. He was ousted as premier last March and has since been relegated to a position of relative obscurity. Bulganin was included with several other former officials reportedly ousted for "anti-party" activity.

The ex-premier was said to have "slid down the road to faction-splitting activity." What that means is that Bulganin and others made the mistake of disagreeing with the Communist party majority. It means they probably had an original thought which ran adverse to hard-and-fast party philosophies.

★

A more recent parallel to the Bulganin case is the issue of Boris Pasternak, author of the controversial novel, "Doctor Zhivago." Pasternak has been forced to refuse a coveted Nobel Prize for his literary work as a result of official Communist indignation against the book. The indignation stemmed from the fact that the book failed to uphold the principles and teachings of Communism.

More than a denunciation of Marx and Lenin, "Doctor Zhivago" was a defense of Christianity and the freedom and dignity of the individual. But once again, the Russian rulers proved that their system cannot survive in the face of divided authority. They proved that there can be no recognition of the individual as anything other than a small part of the total human machine which is Communism.

What a contrast these events show with activities that are a part of our daily life in the United States. The last election has produced no end of discussion, with conflicting thoughts and opinions being the order of the day. Practically everyone has his own idea on how to cure the ills he believes manifested themselves in the last election.

And the results of the elections themselves are something so foreign to the Russian way of life that people behind the Iron Curtain must find them hard to believe, if they are permitted to have any knowledge of such outside developments. A state such as Nebraska which has been dominated by one political party for decades suddenly turns to favor the Democrats.

A state such as Nebraska, with a Democratic governor and a Republican lieutenant governor. And then there is the country at large with a popular Republican President but a Congress filled with the opposition party. With the tools of this same system the people themselves determine provisions in the Constitution under which they shall live. In one state, a millionaire is elected governor while in another the choice goes to a school superintendent. Across the U.S. the various news media all express themselves in a different fashion on the outcome of everything.

Examples Of Democracy

Maybe another seven-year plan looks like the answer to things in the minds of Russian leaders. But as these plans continue to fall short of their goals and civilizations advance in human welfare under freedom and democracy, the people of Russia might well begin to wonder if the basic elements of success have not been left out of the Red formula.

Worthy Of More Thought

Retirement programs for public officials and elected representatives still lack full public endorsement. And in Nebraska which for a long time until recently has been a one party state the question has not had to be fully examined on its merits.

The recent defeat of two Republican congressmen calls to mind that representatives and senators of substantial tenure are cushioned by pensions, varying with years of service and degree to which they have kept up their in-payments.

While a present day congressman receives $22,500 a year, the unusual demands of office plus the expense of running for re-election makes this an illusory figure whose thrift factor is not at all what the same income would provide in private life.

The problem in Nebraska is not on the congressional level, but rather in the area of specialized public employes in the non-elective services at state level and below. Nebraska should not dismiss the question of their security by saying that insecurity is a known hazard and such jobs are taken advisedly. A great many public functions nowadays require professional preparation and a high degree of specialization. The state's need for such is more urgent than the individual's need for the appointment.

Lack of job security and adequate provision for the retirement years certainly is a discouraging factor in the field of education especially in the upper administrative levels. Certainly school superintendents could produce a better brand of education if they could spend more of their capacities on developing education and less on the enforced techniques of jobholding. The same applies to other fields of specialized public service.

School Men Are Realists

The Nebraska Association of School Administrators have gone on record favoring the state's participation in the federal aid to education program.

Specifically, the association favored support to the extent of $100 a pupil, federal and local funds combined, to foster strengthened courses in mathematics, science and modern foreign languages.

The action was not decisive for the power to raise matching funds as well as the prerogative to reorganize state education does not belong to the association. However, its stated attitude is influential and will have weight.

While the association's decision runs counter to the state's running fire of spoken resistance to federal aid, especially in the field of education, it runs consistently with the state's actual record of action. It is hard to find an instance of substantial rejection of federal aid where it has been offered. This runs all the way from sewage disposal plants and reclamation programs through farm programs, highway building and social security and welfare activities.

It could be said that while the association may bring upon itself a flurry of criticism it acted on the basis of reality and therefore will probably win its case. School men, by special training, are good at rationalizing.

Past experience with federal aid does not lend substance to the threat of federal domination of education. Nebraska schools have been taking aid in a variety of departments for sometime now with no visible evidence of loss of sovereignty.

It is time to distinguish between constructive efforts to improve the mental attainments of American youth for the welfare and security of the nation and acts aimed at overriding local sovereignty. A majority deplores southern resistance to desegregation, but it cannot be denied that the civil rights law is a direct attack on home rule. That action is a far cry from a federal grant designed to improve the product of locally run schools.

Editorial Of The Day

For Not Forgetting

From The St. Louis Post Dispatch

The most pathetic aspect of the European landscape is the refugee camp. When Hitler's concentration camps were torn open by the allied armies, there was rejoicing everywhere over the liberation of their surviving victims. Yet some of these had no place to go. So spirit-deadening rows of shacks remained.

The barbed-wire did come down. Leaks were patched with new tar-paper. The Daily ration became life-sustaining. A father could teach his boys to make brushes, wooden letter-openers and other little objects which might bring in a bit of money. A child might be taught to play the violin. There was hope. One could wait until the rubble of the cities was replaced by new housing.

But all of the camps were not emptied. Refugees from the East, for example, poured into Germany. Last of all came the Hungarians, fleeing from the Russian tanks.

A Belgian Dominican, Father Dominique George Pire, chaplain and hero of the underground, refused to look the other way. He knows that Europe still has about 200,000 refugees, and that it will have more than half of them for a long time to come. He has been building villages for these people — villages in which they may regain self-respect and usefulness. His fifth he named for Albert Schweitzer. The next village is to be named for Anne Frank.

His work now has been called to the world's attention. He has been awarded the Nobel peace prize — and $41,227. The money will help to build the new village. That is to be expected of a man who would not forget.

Hate-Dynamiting Is Work Of Pros

WASHINGTON — This writer has visited the chief cities where schools and places of worship have been dynamited recently and has come to the conclusion these bombings are the work of skilled dynamiters hired by a central ring of hate-mongers.

The bombings follow a pattern. The three major bombings have occurred on Sunday at Clinton, Tenn., Atlanta, and Osage, W.Va. The buildings were blown up by people who knew how to handle dynamite, not by crackpots or rabble-rousers. A rabble-rouser like John Kasper knows nothing about dynamite and would probably blow himself up if he tried to handle it.

At Clinton, three heavy charges of dynamite were placed in three key parts of the high school so the explosion would destroy the entire building. It did.

At Atlanta, the dynamite was placed outside the side door of the synagogue. It was a very heavy concentration of dynamite, and would have blown up most of the building had it been placed inside.

The school at Osage, W.Va., was blown up by two heavy concentrations of dynamite obviously placed by an expert. He ran a wire to a car in a parking lot outside the school and used a hand generator to touch off the explosion. The car was heard to start right afterward.

The FBI has been extremely efficient in planting agents inside the Communist party and for a long time also had agents inside the Ku Klux Klan. J. Edgar Hoover has known almost every move made by the Communists in the USA. However, he has been slow about tracking down either the current dynamiters or penetrating the secret ring which probably is financing them.

In fact, the FBI and the federal government were for a long time loath to step into these bombings at all.

When the Jewish Community Center was bombed in Nashville about a year ago, Rabbi William Silverman got a phone call.

"You have two children," said an unidentified voice. "You send them to school. Better take them out of school. You wouldn't want to see them hurt, would you?"

Dr. Silverman told me that he tried to get the FBI at that time to listen in on his telephone in order to trace other calls threatening his life. But the FBI said it could only tap his phone if they put a beeper on the wire which of course would immediately reveal that the phone was tapped. To tap a phone, FBI agents explained, was illegal.

This is true. But the FBI has tapped various telephones in Washington.

Old Guard Weak In New Senate

WASHINGTON — The ideological scorecard for the Nov. 4 election shows that the working strength of conservatives in the Senate has been reduced by 28, or better than a fourth of the total membership.

In only two states — New York and Vermont — were senators replaced by men who may take positions on some issues to the right of their predecessors. But both these two — Senators-Elect Keating and Prouty — consider themselves modern Republicans and are well to the left of the Old Guard.

The men today most conscious of the disparity between the present balance of power and the old are the senior Democratic conservatives, mainly Southerners, who lead the major committees. These men have maintained their views in large part by coalition with like-minded Republicans.

Secure in the knowledge that the GOP would contribute some of the votes they needed, they could afford a certain amount of liberal infiltration from their own party. Now they are faced with the fact that the liberal gains were all double whammies because they were all made at conservative expense.

The Finance committee, which handles tax and money matters, offers a striking example. Its chairman, Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, has steadily lost ideological ground on its Democratic side and can count in all cases only on Senator J. Allen Frear Jr. of Delaware. But Byrd drew consistent support from five of the seven Republican members. Next year only two of that five will be on hand.

Due to the size of the Democratic victory Byrd will be under pressure to accept more Democrats of the liberal persuasion while Republicans will be deprived of a comparable number of places.

This has a significance going far beyond any one vote or series of votes in any one field. The ability to deliver a committee majority for or against a given proposition is a valuable trading asset. It has long been used to the hilt by the Southerners to maintain their civil rights position.

In the next Congress, however, their growing isolation on their committees will be almost as striking as their isolation in their party. They will still have great power merely to obstruct action, but they are astute politicians who will realize that this is a negative power only, which could do great damage to the Texas leaders they want to keep at the helm.

Few precedents exist for extending mercy to the defeated party when it comes to setting up committees. Due to the operations of the seniority system a senator's future depends greatly on his original committee assignments. The very best of them rarely display any of the milk of human kindness when such assignments are in question.

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson will be compelled to revise radically present ratios of every important committee to take care of his new working majority. The next effect may make his own task harder in some ways, but it is the price of last week's triumph.

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

How Sweet The Name Of Jesus Sounds!

How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.

It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

Dear Name! the Rock on which I build,
My Shield and Hiding Place,
My never-failing Treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace;

Jesus, my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

By HORACE B. POWELL

The Rev. John Newton was an ardent Christian and believer when he wrote this favorite hymn, in 1779, but there were years in his earlier life when he ridiculed the church and religion.

Born in London in 1725, he had little schooling. His mother died when he was a lad of seven and without her love and guidance he drifted into a wayward life. In his early youth he went to sea and became engaged in the African slave trade. For years he was an infidel. He loved to boast about it and to blaspheme the church.

But one night the slave ship on which he was returning from Africa to England was caught up in a severe storm. As disaster appeared inevitable, John Newton prayed to God for deliverance and, when the storm abated, the young seaman had found faith in Christ through answered prayer.

The experience completely changed his life.

Non-Legislative Experts Lend A Hand

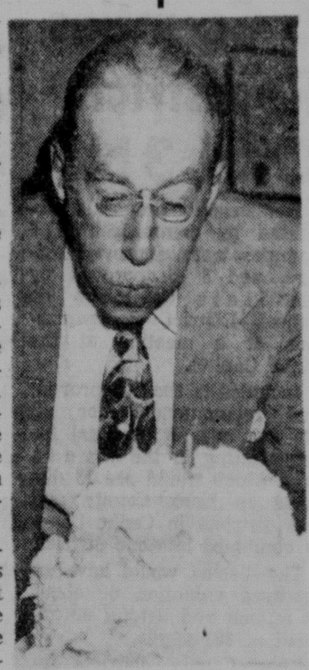

WASHINGTON — In the interval between the election and the arrival of a thundering horde of newly elected Democrats, the wistful hope is held out that because of their greatly enlarged majorities and therefore their far greater responsibility, the new majorities can set the line on foreign policy.

While this is partly illusion, it also, as recent events have shown, contains an element of truth despite the weaknesses of the congressional committee system. The Senate Foreign Relations Committee can take considerable credit for the development loan fund, which is a valuable new instrument of policy.

Chairman of the committee is Sen. Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island. At age 91 — his birthdays have become as much a feature of Washington life as the appearance of the cherry blossoms — Sen. Green keeps direction of the committee firmly in his own hands.

He has the habit, intensely annoying to other members of the committee, of reading in committee meeting long documents in a manner that for stupefying dullness has no peers. As he drones on the Senators around the table get fidgety and soon discover they have more important business elsewhere.

Minnesota's Sen. Hubert Humphrey, who is always busier than 10 bird dogs, dashes out to the Senate Agriculture Committee to make sure that the interests of Minnesota dairy farmers are looked after. Others drift away until the chairman's venerable voice sounds on the empty air.

SEN. GREEN
. . . his reading habit shows weakness of committee system . . .

This points up the failings of the committee system. Claims for the time and attention pile up on each member of Congress. Every year the burden grows greater as the people back home come more and more to regard their senators and representatives as agents sent to Washington to lobby for more federal gravy in defense contracts or rivers or harbors.

Under the Congressional Reorganization Act of 1946, no committee can have more than four professional and six clerical employes without special approval. Consultants can be hired on a year-to-year basis. But with such a small staff, obviously the Foreign Relations Committee cannot build up the independent factual background on which to initiate policy, even if that were possible under the American system.

But it so happens, and this is an encouraging sign, that the vast body of expert knowledge in this country is about to be drawn upon. Thanks in part to the able staff director of the Foreign Relations Committee, Carl March, the gap between legislative decision and action and the experts with objective knowledge and with new ideas in the universities and the various associations may be bridged.

After Vice-President Nixon was greeted in Latin-America by a blast of hatred, the committee at the instigation of Sen. Wayne Morse authorized an inquiry into policy south of the border, with a fund of $150,000. Then when the Near East blew up and the United States had no alternative but to send troops into Lebanon, a world-wide investigation was ordered, with $300,000 authorized. Sen. William Fulbright, who in his nearly 20 years in Congress has become one of the nation's foremost specialists in foreign policy, had long been pressing for such a broad inquiry.

What is now contemplated is that the money will be used to contract with foreign relations experts in centers that have come into being at Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Johns Hopkins, the University of Chicago and in three or four institutions on the West Coast. In this way, if the plan is approved, the lawmakers will benefit from the counsel of the nation's most distinguished experts.

These findings will be checked against the reports of the State Department. The surveys authorized by the committee are to be completed by the spring of 1960 and the reports made public at that time.

There is a strong inclination by committee members to co-operate with those in the department who want to enlarge and improve the economic aid programs and get away from what many feel is a sterile and repetitive doling out of arms to nations ill-equipped to use them. Thus the committee, in approving the development loan fund, worked closely with Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon, who has been constantly stressing the need for more and better economic programs.

These are hopeful portents. They indicate that, despite the pessimists, the American system of divided powers can work constructively under the spur of urgent necessity.

Court Test Of LaPlatte Bridge Wage Contract May Develop

By Betty Person

A court test of Nebraska's Fair Labor Standards Act was indicated Friday by Nebraska labor union representatives at hearing called by Gov. Victor Anderson on union requests that a contract between the Highway Department and the Jensen Construction Co. of Iowa be rescinded.

Nebraska AFL-CIO President Gordon Preble had written State Engineer L. N. Ress asking that the contract with Jensen be rescinded charging that the construction company was violating the Labor Act by paying below minimum wages on a bridge project near LaPlatte.

Deputy Attorney General Clarence A. H. Meyer told Ress he could not advise rescinding the contract, and Meyer repeated the advice at Friday's hearing.

Labor Act Questioned

The Fair Labor Standards Act provides that such standards "shall be construed to mean such a scale of wages and conditions of employment as are paid and maintained by at least 50% of the contractors in the same business or field of endeavor as the contractor filing such a statement."

The unions contend that this means what at least 50% of the contractors are paying in that same area, but Meyer said the intent of the law was not clear on whether it was to mean within an area or statewide.

"We couldn't safely advise him (Ress), in view of those cloudy areas, to rescind the contract with that construction company," Meyer told the union representatives.

VIc Favors Test

Union attorney David Weinberg said his people believed it should be tested in court, but Meyer said he didn't believe it would be "quite cricket to pick on a contractor."

The governor said he would favor testing the Act if there's some way to get at it."

Erling Jensen, president of the Des Moines construction company, testified at the hearing that his firm is "paying wages in excess or equal to those set in the contract," adding that they were "substantially the same as we are paying on interstate work in Iowa and Nebraska."

Jensen To Report

The unions also questioned whether Jensen had filed a compliance statement showing he was paying wages set up in the contract, but it was determined that such compliance statements are required only on interstate highway work, which the bridge project is not.

The governor said, however, he would ask Jensen to file a report showing the wage he is paying "to give proof" that he is complying with the contract.

Nebraska law requires only that such wage payments be available to the Highway Department on regular highway construction projects, rather than filing reports.

The project is a $600,000 contract for construction of a bridge over the Platte River near LaPlatte on U.S. 73-75.

Dr. Beggs Says Public Likes Changes Made In Education

The American people took a long hard look at education in 1958 and in the main liked what they saw, Dr. Walter K. Beggs, dean of the University of Nebraska Teachers College, told the Nebraska Assn. of School Administrators Friday evening.

Delivering the closing address of the two-day session at the Unniversity of Nebraska, he said the citizens want some changes but "within the framework of free, comprehensive, universal education."

They want, he explained, more but not exclusive emphasis on science. "They may want schools to become bi-or multi-lingual but this has not completely jelled yet. They want more attention to the student with superior academic talent and they want higher performance on all levels in skilled as well as academic areas."

Dr. Henzlik Speaks

Dr. Beggs said that the year 1958 started out in a climate of panic and is ending on a note of determined and guarded optimism. He called the controversy in education "a very healthy experience."

Dr. Frank E. Henzlik, former dean of the University of Nebraska Teachers College and professor of school administration, spoke to the school administrators in the forenoon.

He listed 7 qualities that lead to administrative effectiveness:

1. An all-absorbing purpose. "A sound sense of direction is not only desirable but necessary."
2. "The ability to size up a problem correctly and look at it from the viewpoint of the long pull as well as just for today is an asset that pays dividends."
3. The ability to make executive decisions.
4. The ability to work with and handle people.
5. The willingness and capacity to assume responsibility.
6. "Interest, and enthusiasms that lead to voluntary commitment and involvement in school administration."
7. "Stamina, courage, perseverance."

Wesleyan U Lists $122,000 In New Gifts

Major grants and gifts totaling over $122 thousand have been received by Wesleyan University since the start of the school year, President Vance D. Rogers announced.

Most recently received were a $1,000 grant from the Readers Digest Foundation, and a $1,500 unrestricted gift from the Texas Company.

The Readers Digest grant, Dr. Rogers said, comes unrestricted but with a recommendation that the gift be used for scholarships. The $1,000 will be placed in the current scholarship budget.

The Texaco gift is a continuation of the oil company's aid-to-education program.

Other grants and gifts are as follows:

(1) A $64 thousand gift from Ira J. Taylor of Paoli, Colo., for the construction of a swimming pool, bringing Taylor's gift total since 1953 to more than $144 thousand.

(2) A $25 thousand memorial gift from two alumni—M. A. Pixley and Dr. T. S. Blair, both of California — to memoralize 3 sections of the new campus center now under construction.

(3) A $20 thousand grant from the Hill Family Foundation of Minnesota to support an experimental work-study program in physics over a 4-year span.

(4) A $73 hundred grant from the National Science Foundation to support a research project by Dr. Walter French Jr., head of the department of physics, in "Variations in Cosmic Ray Intensities."

(5) A $4 thousand grant from the Woods Charitable Fund, Inc. of Lincoln to establish a graduate fellowship program for promising young teachers.

Muny Court Receipts Drop—1st Time In 9 Years

By Virgil Falloon

Municipal Court receipts of $245,928.78 showed a decline for the first time in 9 years, according to an independent audit made of the 1957-58 fiscal year ended Aug. 31.

Criminal and civil cases filed in the court totalled 17,806 and continued a decrease for the second consecutive year.

The examination by Philip G. Johnson & Co., certified public accountants, of records of the court and Parking and Inspections Violations Bureau for the fiscal year was released Friday.

Total cash receipts of $245,928.78 were down from the $260,495.56 for 1956-57.

Criminal fines of $185,029.20 for the year dropped from $199,616.20 and court costs to $46,191.10 from $49,539.95.

Civil Cases Up

Major cause was a drop of 549 in the 17,806 criminal cases compared with the previous year. Civil cases of 933 showed a comparable increase of 52.

Parking Violation Bureau receipts totalled $18,525.55 in penalties and $60,677.45 in administraitve costs collected for 63,871 violations.

Johnson's 12-page report said no material discrepancies were found in the validated tickets on file and machine receipts.

No Discrepancies

Also no material discrepancies were noted on test checks made of tickets issued officers by checking series of 100 tickets each, the report said.

The report appeared to indicate that the new 4-copy ticket and machine validation system, inaugurated last Jan. 1, was working successfully.

All civil and criminal case receipts were accounted for except for 5 issued in criminal cases, the report said. The missing receipts could not be presented, but court officials presumed them voided.

Recommendations

Noting that recommendations made in the previous audit had not been followed, the Johnson report again made the following procedural recommendations:

—That a change fund be established in the criminal cases division and that all receipts be deposited intact. Presently, cash is being held out of current receipts to provide a working cash fund and daily receipts are not being deposited intact.

—That as of the close of the year the fee books be held open to record all cash received on the last day of the year and dates in the fee books correspond with the dates as shown by the receipts issued.

R. E. Campbell and R. L. Fredstrom, out-going president of the Lincoln Kiwanis Club, congratulate C. Petrus Peterson who was honored as the recipient of the Kiwanis Distinguished Service Award at a luncheon Friday noon. Campbell paid tribute to Peterson in a speech at the luncheon. (Star Photo)

C. Petrus Peterson Wins Kiwanis Club Service Award

C. Petrus Peterson, prominent Lincoln lawyer and longtime Nebraska leader, received the 35th annual Lincoln Kiwanis Club distinguished service medal at the club's Friday meeting.

Dr. R. L. Fredstrom, club president, presented the award and a plaque which read: "To C. Petrus Peterson for outstanding service to the community."

Among the more than 200 persons attending the event were 4 previous winners of the Kiwanis citation. They were: Mrs. Herbert Brownell, Lincoln, 1938; Dr. Raymond Pool, Lincoln, 1954; Merle Grant Jones, Beatrice, 1955; and Nathan J. Gold, Lincoln, winner in 1957.

Campbell Speaks

R. E. Campbell, former Lincoln Mayor and long-time friend of Peterson, told the assembly "Our honored guest has conspicuously, and forthrightly championed the dignity of man and the freedom of choice by the individual."

"He richly merits this high award. His lifetime of unselfish and devoted service to our community, our state, and our nation deserves recognition, and a public expression of grateful thanks," he said.

Long Devoted

"As for myself," Campbell said, "I am instinctively attracted by his integrity and sense of responsibility, by his unfailing courtesy, his generous and sympathetic attitude, his genial companionship, and his ability to listen and his wise counsel."

Campbell said Peterson's lifetime of devotion to the community earns him "a special place among the leaders of men." The speaker reviewed Peterson's service as a legislator and leader in the National Reclamation Association.

In accepting the award, Peterson said, "Your designation today is appreciated beyond any words with which to express it. The award of which this plaque is a symbol lights up the pathway through whatever tomorrows may still be mine and I thank you from the bottom of my heart."

Vic Says He Kept Roads, Politics Apart

Gov. Victor Anderson told a road delegation from Benkelman Friday that his administration had "taken politics out of road building and maybe that wasn't good for my election, but if I had it to do over again, I wouldn't change."

The 15-man delegation, led by Dundy County Attorney Leon C. Hines of Benkelman, asked the governor to blacktop a 9-mile stretch of gravel on Hwy. 61 located 15 miles north of Benkelman.

Stating that he had "not built a political road" during his administration, Gov. Anderson said, "You and I know that (political roads) isn't the way to build a good highway system."

Explaining that under the Highway Department's rating system the 9-mile gravel gap on Highway 61 had not been found sufficient to warrant new construction in the last two-year road program, Anderson said the new rating system was being discussed Friday by Highway Department engineers.

The delegation told Anderson the 9-mile stretch was impassable in bad weather requiring residents of that area "sometimes to go 100 miles out of their way" to reach their destination.

Health Dept. Bars Missouri R. Sewers

Six communities along the Missouri River were restricted Friday by the State Health Department from undertaking extensions to existing sewers.

The order would prevent tapping onto existing sewer facilities by new housing or other types of buildings.

Involved are the cities of South Sioux City, Dakota City, Bellevue, Nebraska City, Plattsmouth and Niobrara.

State Health Director Dr. E. A. Rogers said a similar restriction for a section of Omaha would be lifted by the Water Pollution Control Council at its next gathering.

Dear Abby . . .

Use Psychology, Honey!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I can never get my husband to go any place. He is only 41 and he acts like 90! Even when I plan an evening of bridge at home with another couple he grumbles. When I ask him to take me to a movie he throws a fit. How can I get him to be more social and to take me out more?

RUTH

DEAR RUTH: Your approach is wrong! Don't TELL him—let him have a choice. Say, "Darling, do you want to hear Dr. Talkalegoff lecture on "Nuclear Physics and Existentialism" tonight, or shall we see a movie instead?" Or, "Dear, do you want to clear out the store-room tonight, or shall I ask those nice Joneses over for a table of bridge?"

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I need advice and I need it fast. My father and brother keep barging into my room without knocking. I'm sixteen and feel that I deserve a little privacy. There's no lock on my door so I put a chair up against it. Last night my father fell over the chair and cracked his shin bone and he got so mad he would have wrung my neck if he had caught me. Don't you think they should knock before coming into my room or am I wrong'

"NO PRIVACY"

DEAR "NO." Yes! But you need a LOCK not a KNOCK! Your mother will cooperate—and so will your father if he likes his shin bone connected to his knee bone.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: My daughters, ages 3 and 4, are very poor eaters and always have been. I don't know what they live on. Just getting a bowl of cereal or a glass of orange juice down them is sheer torture. They poke around and take about an hour. I don't let them eat between meals, hoping they will be hungry at mealtime, but that doesn't help. I would give anything to see them enjoy a meal. If you or your readers have any ideas, I would be very grateful.

DISCOURAGED

DEAR DISCOURAGED: Take them to your family doctor. Let him prescribe a good nourishing diet and perhaps a food supplement including a tonic or vitamins. Nagging and coaxing children to eat can spoil their appetites.

☆ ☆ ☆

CONFIDENTIAL TO NICK: She sounds much too good to be true. Careful of of those gals who have trouble getting their dresses over their wings. Later they have trouble getting their hats on over their horns.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Around The Town

—The week end is not as exciting as it could be, considering we have a football game to offer, but the Air Force set is more than making up for any lag in activity.

It seems that Col. and Mrs. Wilson Wood and their children, Wilson, Jr., Don Robert, Beth and Billy, will be leaving Lincoln soon to reside in London where Col. Wood has been assigned to the Royal Air Force Staff College. Needless to say a variety of courtesies have been planned for these very popular members of the Air Force circles — courtesies that began last evening and will continue right up to departure date.

* * *

—Col. and Mrs. Wood were honored on Friday evening when Col. and Mrs. Elkin Reed entertained a small group of guests at dinner at their home. The guest list included, in addition to the honorees, Col. and Mrs. Thomas G. Corbin, Col. and Mrs. Wilbur Beezley, Col. and Mrs. Earl Batten, Col. and Mrs. Jacob Hutchinson, Mrs. J. O. Britt, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Raleigh Smith and Lt. Col. and Mrs. Jesse Stay.

—The approaching week and the week to follow are filled with parties for Col. and Mrs. Woods—plus two daytime affairs complimenting the Colonel's lady.

Next Friday afternoon Mrs. Felix Hardison, Mrs. Virgil West and Mrs. James K. Dwyer will be hostesses in courtesy to Mrs. Wood when they entertain at a Mexican luncheon and duplicating bridge party at the Officers Club. Twenty-one guests have been invited for the luncheon after which four tables will be placed for duplicate bridge.

* * *

—And next Frdiay evening Col. and Mrs. John E. Murray will pay farewell courtesy to Col. and Mrs. Wood when they entertain at dinner at their home. Dinner places will be arranged for 20, and the after dinner hours will be spent informally.

* * *

—Speaking of duplicate bridge and the Lincoln Air Force Base reminds us that the Lincoln Duplicate Bridge Club will hold a two-session sectional charity tournament on Sunday at the Officers Club. The proceeds will go to the Rheumatism and Arthritis Foundation. The tournament play begins a 12 o'clock and is open to all who are interested.

* * *

—Had things to tell you yesterday, but didn't quite make it—Included in our news was the luncheon for which Miss Nan Carlson was hostess at the University Club on Friday when she paid prenuptial courtesy to Miss Holly Hawke whose marriage to Donald Larson of Santa Barbara, Calif., will take place a week from today. The guest list included Kappa Kappa Gamma sisters of the bride-elect and her hostess.

* * *

—Our guest list this week end includes Mr. and Mrs. William Powell of Ottumwa, Ia., who are the house guests of Mrs. Powell's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Spahnle.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell, who resided in Lincoln during Mr. Powell's association with The Lincoln Star, stopped in Lincoln en route to their home from St. Paul, Minn., and Sioux Falls, S.D.

Party For The Newman Buckleys

We hear that Mr. and Mrs. Newman Buckley, newly settled in their home at 3133 So. 31st St., planned to go out for a duck dinner last evening. Insteada a group of their friends arrived at their home with dinner all prepared—and ready to be served.

In on the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Don McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Folsom, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hyland, Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wiedman, Mr. and Mrs. William Stoner, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lowe Folsom, Mrs. Mavis Poe, Mrs. Jerry Dosek, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Buckley, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Patten and Mr. and Mrs. John Hoyt.

In the picture are (from the left), seated on the floor, Mrs. Newman Buckley, three-year-old Carol Buckley, and Dr. Wilbur Wiedman; and seated on the couch, Mr. Buckley, Mr. Lester Buckley, Mrs. Mavis Poe, Mrs. Wilbur Wiedman, Dr. Richard Groff, and Mr. Lowe Folsom (seated on coffee table).

Bridal Shower

Miss Judith Lutz, who has chosen Saturday, Nov. 29, as the date for her marriage to Duane Robert Steffen, was honored on Friday evening at a dessert supper and miscellaneous shower given by her aunt, Mrs. Henry Lutz. The fifteen guests were invited to the Henry Lutz home for the evening.

Lincoln Based Tanker Aids Limping B-47

The crew of a B-47 Stratojet Medium Bomber assigned to Whiteman AFB, Sedalia, Mo., can thank a KC-97 Refueling Tanker from the 98th Air Refueling Squadron at Lincoln Air Force Base for the possible saving of its plane and crew.

The LAFB crew, commanded by 1st Lt. Francis M. Harvey of Sealy, Tex. was alerted by LAFB officials to give refueling assistance to the B-47 which was experiencing a malfunction in the aircraft's landing gear and would be unable to land safely.

At 8:15 a.m., just one hour and 20 minutes after being alerted, Lt. Harvey and his crew made contact with the bomber and began refueling procedures. At 8:35 a total of approximately 6,500 gallons of fuel had been transferred, giving the aircraft an additional 6 hours in the air to correct the malfunction.

At 9:50 a.m. the B-47 and its crew landed safely at Whiteman.

Lt. Harvey's crew includes 1st Lt. Richard M. Gilfillan, Stillwater, Minn., co-pilot; 2nd Lt. William B. Willborn, Chicago navigator; T.Sgt. Richard L. Pennington, Crossett, Ark. flight engineer; T.-Sgt. Clifford D. Deane, Indianapolis boom operator and A.-2C Robert L King, Hopewell, N.J. radio operator.

Ed Carter Jr. To Direct Family Section ...Of Council

Edward F. Carter Jr., Lincoln attorney, has been appointed chairman of the reorganized Lincoln Community Council's Family and Children's Section.

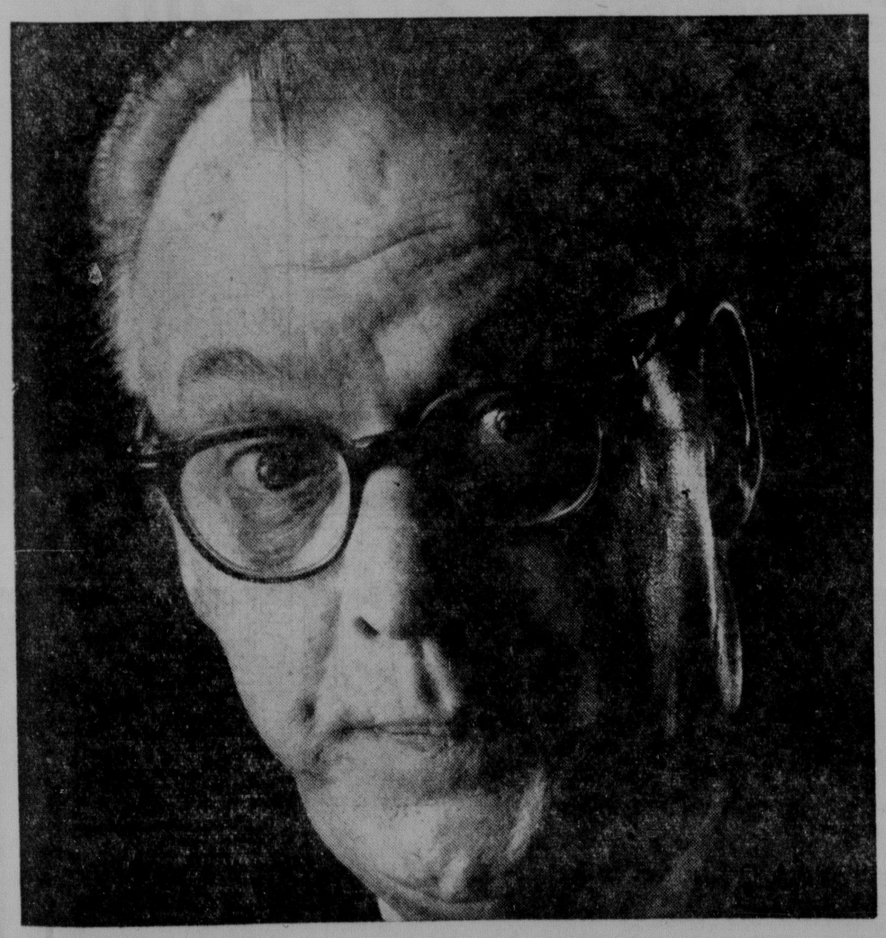

Carter

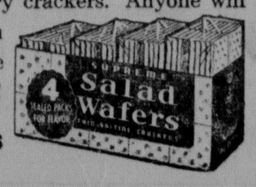

Thomas M. Davies, Community Council president, said that the section, an arm of the council dealing with family and children's programs, has been inactive for many months.

With the advent of the recent Leedy survey of health, welfare and youth services, there is a vital need for the reactivation of the Family and Children's Section," he said.

A meeting of the group is scheduled for Thursday noon at the YWCA building.

"Brother! To think that all these years no one ever told me about Supreme Salad Wafers." Our apologies, but we thought everyone knew Supreme Salad Wafers are not just ordinary crackers. Anyone will tell you they have a better flavor because they're rich in shortening. And we bake them with all the care your wife gives a prize cake. Now you know. Make up for lost time!

COMSTOCK LEADS BIG 10 WIN

Scottsbluff Rips Columbus, 28-0

Lincoln Star Special

Columbus — Scottsbluff's explosive scoring punch captured a 28-0 victory over Columbus here Friday night in the 14th renewal of the Big 10 Conference championship playoff.

It was Scottsbluff's 4th playoff victory in 6 tries.

The triumph, with fullback Bill Comstock supplying the biggest fireworks, gave the Bearcats a 10-0 season record before some 5,000 fans.

Center Larry Krause provided the first explosion with less than 2 minutes played when he intercepted a Tom Ernst pass at the midfield stripe and rambled untouched to score.

Sid Micek booted the first of his 4 successful conversions.

Columbus put on its only serious threat of the game following Krause's touchdown, moving from its own 31 to the Scottsbluff 3-yard line.

Ernst and Con Keating were the leaders of the drive but Ernst's 4th down pass fell incomplete.

The Bearcats immediately mounded a 97-yard scoring drive in 7 plays. The drive was highlighted by a 32-yard run by Comstock to the Columbus 33 where he was hit and fumbled, but officials ruled the ball dead, drawing the displeasure of Columbus fans.

Micek's pass to end Galen Schwaner on the next play was good for the touchdown.

Comstock scored twice in the final half. His first on an 80 yard jaunt on the first play after the 2nd half kickoff. He broke through the right side of the Columbus line and outran the Discoverers for the TD.

He scored again on the same play early in the 4th quarter, this time from the Columbus 22 on the first play after Scottsbluff had recovered a fumble.

Columbus had an edge in first downs 13 to 11 and in passing yardage 91 to 85. But Scottsbluff outrushed the Discoverers 260 to 125.

Columbus made most of its yardage in midfield with the Bearcat line led by Larry Donavan and Krause proving tough in the clutch.

Columbus, which reached the playoff for the first time in history, finished with a 7-2-1 record.

Scottsbluff	14	0	7	7	—28
Columbus	0	0	0	0	— 0

Hofmann Peps Fifth Triumph

By Bob McCoy

Nebraska Wesleyan, fired by the speedy slants of scatback Gary Hofmann, punched across 3 touchdowns after Doane miscues and posted a 21-7 victory at Magee Stadium Friday night to complete the first NWU winning season in years.

The victory gave the Plainsmen a final 5-4 record, the first time over the .500 hump since Coach Kieth Skogman took over the Wesleyan reins in 1954.

By winning, Wesleyan jumped in sole possession of 4th place in the expanded Nebraska College Conference with a 5-3 record, another high mark for Skogman's regime.

Hofmann supplied the fireworks after tough defensive work by end Dean Sell and tackle Ron Nannen had set the groundwork for the Wesleyan scoring surges.

Hofmann scored twice, piled up 88 yards on the ground and had two touchdowns called back on penalties.

After a scoreless first quarter featured by a 40-yard dash to the end zone by Hofmann which was called back, the Plainsmen rolled up two quick TDs to supply the necessary offense.

Sell got the point parade started, racing 50 yards to the Doane 20 with an intercepted pass to set up the first TD.

After senior fullback Larry Cook had lugged the ball to the 9 for a first down, Wesleyan quarterback Lonnie Johnson was tagged for a 2-yard loss and then fired to Hofmann for an 11-yard score.

This came with 9:23 to play in the half and Johnson's PAT kick made the count 7-0.

The Plainsmen needed only one play to register their second tally, which came with just 1:47 left in the half. Nannen picked up a Doane fumble on the 33 and Hofmann streaked to the end zone on a double reverse to make it 14-0 Wesleyan.

Doane got one TD back as the second half opened, but the officials stole the thunder from the Tiger tally, although actually aiding it.

With one play left in the half, Doane attempted a kick and the clock ran out. But the officials called Wesleyan for roughing the kicker and the Tigers got a first down and still had one play. This time it was a pass and went incomplete, but the Plainsmen were assessed another 15 for roughing the passer, giving Doane a first down again.

The next pass was intercepted by Wesleyan's Bob Johnson to end the ordeal. Then came the halftime show, and when the band was late leaving the field, NWU was charged with 15 more yards and Doane kicked off from the Plainsmen 45 to open the final half.

The Tigers kicked short and recovered on the Wesleyan 32, where it took just 8 plays to produce a touchdown.

Bob Armstrong went the final 2 yards on 4th down and Erv Wentling kicked the point to cut the margin to 14-7. The Tigers were on the move, but the Plainsmen took the wind out of their spirits moments later with what proved to be the most confusing play of the night.

Bob Johnson punted to Doane's Ron Barker on the Tiger 10 and when Sell came in for the tackle, Barker fumbled and Wesleyan's Lonnie Johnson scooped up the ball and raced to the 2.

Cook scored from the 3 two plays later and Wesleyan had its 21-7 victory.

Both clubs threatened in the final period, Wesleyan getting a 93-yard TD pass play from Lonnie Johnson to Hofmann called back because of a clip and a late Doane drive ending on the Plainsmen 5.

Wesleyan got to the Doane 6 in the second period when the Tigers were penalized 15 yards when Coach Al Papik stepped onto the field to protest a call, but failed to score.

The loss ended Doane's season with a 3-6 mark. The Tigers played all their games in the NCC and wound up in 7th place.

Doane	0	0	7	0	— 7
Wesleyan	0	14	7	0	—21

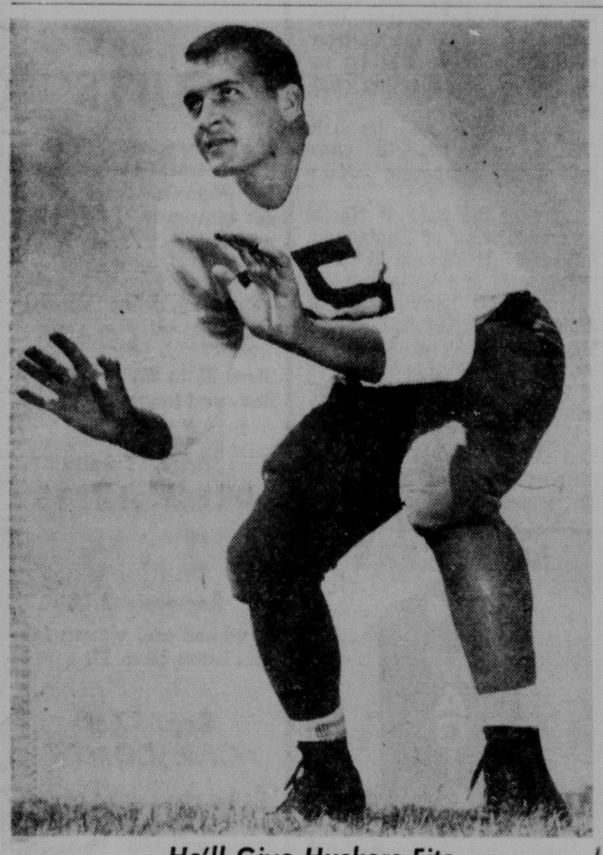

Doane TD: Bob Armstrong (2 plunge). PAT: Erv Wentling.

Wesleyan TDs: Gary Hofman 2 (11, pass from Lonnie Johnson; 33, run); Larry Cook (3, plunge). PAT: L. Johnson 3.

He'll Give Huskers Fits

This 233-pound Pittsburgh guard is expected to give the Nebraska football team a badtime this afternoon at Memorial Stadium. He is John Guzik, prominently mentioned as All-American material and a standout for Pitt all season.

PITT, NU VARSITIES RELAX

Husker Frosh Stage Spirited Scrimmage

By Don Bryant

While the Nebraska and Pittsburgh varsity teams held only light, limbering up sessions Friday afternoon, the Cornhusker Freshman squad went at it tooth and tong on the north practice field.

And when darkness finally descended, the White club —Coach Warren Schmakel's No. 2 frosh unit — had a 12-6 win, the alternates' 3rd straight win in 4 nights of rugged scrimmage.

It was another slam-bang affair, highlighted by hard running backs, leather-popping tackles and a 50-yard TD run with an interecepted fumble.

The first unit—Greens—staved off an early White threat which came when Pat Clare fumbled the opening kickoff deep in his own territory and then fought back to take a 6-0 lead.

Ron Mead of Canby, Minn., the Green quarterback, hit left end Don Purcell of Omaha with a 10-yard pass to put the Greens in front.

The Whites tied it up when quarterback Bill Leifur wedged over from the one-foot line after a couple of fine runs by Noel Martin put them in scoring position.

End Pat Salerno of Omaha provided the Whites with the clincher. Late in the contest, he picked a Green fumble out of the air and streak half the field to score.

The Husker frosh will practice 4 more days next week before winding up the 1958 season.

Pitt Minus Starters

Coach John Michelosen and 36 Pittsburgh Panthers arrived in Lincoln Friday noon and held a short workout at Memorial Stadium after a brief rest at the Hotel Cornhusker.

The Panthers left two of their starters at home—both right side linemen, tackle Bill Lindner and end Art Gob.

Ernie Westwood, junior lettermen who weighs 218, will open in place of Linder, while Bob Rathi will get the nod at right end. He's a 195-pound junior letterman.

Michelosen also indicated he had decided to start veteran Fred Riddle, a 195-pounder, at fullback in place of soph Jim Cunningham.

'Maybe Snow'

There's a chance for some rain Saturday and the weatherman says that the rain may change to snow.

Temps are expected to range from 35 to 45.

The Memorial Stadium tarp was partially removed Friday afternoon to allow the two teams to workout, but it was replaced immediately after the drills and will remain down until just before game time.

Short Shots

Carl Samuelson, former NU star, had a long chat with Pitt coach Michelosen at Friday's workout . The two reminisced about the days both were with Pittsburgh's pro team . . . Sam and most of the spectators were impressed by the size of the Panthers. They look like the typical Eastern "meatgrinder"-type club . . . Pitt, like Nebraska under Bill Glassford —a Pitt grad—uses the T-formation, but features power blocking a la the single wing . . . 3-HORSE PILEUP INJURES JOCKEY

San Bruno, Calif. (AP)—Jockey Manuel Ycaza broke his right collarbone and suffered a brain concussion and two other riders were hurt less seriously in a 3-horse pileup during the first race at Tanforan Friday.

It was the 21-year-old Panamanian's first ride since he was set down for 20 days for an infraction last month at Belmont Park.

Ycaza, unconscious when carried from the track, regained consciousness at Burlingame's Peninsula General Hospital, where he will be kept for a time.

Jockey Taylor Powell, at first feared seriously injured, came out of the spill with only a bruised hip and a hand injury. He was discharged after X-ray examination. Powell, 27, lives at Newhall, Calif.

Shaken up was apprentice Marvin Green, 20, leading rider in the current meet. He was treated at the track dispensary and released but not allowed to fill his other commitments Friday, Green is from The Dalles, Ore.

Tanforan officials blamed the accident on careless riding, singling out jockey Roy Yaka as the one responsible. Ycaza was riding A's O War, which tripped on the heels of Jimmy James, ridden by Yaka.

Senor Rey, with Green in the saddle, and Callight, with Powell up, then piled up on the threshing Al's O War. In the melee, Ycaza and Powell were knocked cold.

Track stewards ordered Yaka to appear before them Saturday for questioning and possible disciplinary action.

IOWA'S CROWN NOW OFFICIAL

Chicago (AP)—Conference champion Iowa's expected selection as Big Ten representative in the Rose Bowl football game next New Year's Day was announced Friday by K. L. (Tug) Wilson, conference commissioner.

Wilson said Iowa was named in a mail vote of conference schools. As in the past, the vote was not disclosed.

Iowa last Saturday clinched the Big Ten title by defeating Minnesota 28-6 for a 5-0 conference mark with Ohio State to face today to complete the Hawkeye conference season. The Hawkeyes finish their overall campaign against Notre Dame a week from today.

This will be Iowa's and coach Forest Evashevski's second trip to the Rose Bowl. Iowa represented the Big Ten in the 1957 Rose Bowl contest, defeating Pacific Coast Conference champion Oregon State, 35-19.

Iowa's likely opponent this new Year's Day will be California.

Colts To Make Film Of Shaw

Baltimore (AP) —Quarterback George Shaw of the Baltimore Colts is going to have a starring role in a movie of Sunday's game against the Chicago Bears.

In addition to the usual camera taking a film of the entire game, one will be trained exclusively on the Colt quarterback.

"We'll film every move he makes," coach Weeb Ewbank said Friday.

"That will show us not only his actions, but also what kind of protection he is getting."

The idea isn't aimed particularly at Shaw who took over as quarterback last week for the injured John Unitas.

KEARNEY TO GET SUPPORT

NCC Playoff Plans Nixed

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) District 11 committee voted Friday night not to hold a playoff to determine the football champion in its area.

This ended speculation that Kearney State and Chadron State, unbeaten co-champions of the Nebraska College Conference, would meet to determine a team for a possible playoff spot in the NAIA national championships.

But the District 11 committee did throw its full support to Kearney as the No. 1 team in the area, hoping that the Antelopes might be named to one of the national playoff berths.

Kearney is currently ranked No. 8 in the NAIA list of the top 20 teams. Chadron was rated 16th this week.

District director Irv Peterson said that the Kearney-Chadron game was discussed at length at the meeting, but that neither team actually wanted the playoff. The vote was unanimous to support Kearney's bid for the national spot.

Four teams will be chosen by the NAIA to participate in the national eliminations. The two winners would go to the NAIA bowl game in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Kearney's chances to be selected appear good. The national group is expected to pick the 4 teams by Nov. 20.

Members of the District 11 group at the meeting at Nebraska Wesleyan included Irv Peterson of Wesleyan, Paul Peterson of Dana, Virgil Yelkin of Omaha University, Al Papik of Doane and Charles Foster of Kearney.

LeBaron May Be Sidelined Sunday

Washington (AP) — Eddie Le Baron, the National Football League's leading passer, is sick and may not be able to play for the Washington Redskins against the Cleveland Browns on Sunday.

Le Baron was hit overnight with a flu-type illness. His temperature this morning was 102.

That high a fever likely would impair the little quarterback even if he recovers sufficiently to make the game at Washington's Griffith Stadium. If he's still ailing, either Ralph Guglielmi or Rudy Bukich would take his place.

Maryland Rips Miami By 26-14

Miami, Fla. (AP) — John Forbes, 190-pound package of dynamite, led the Maryland Terrapins to a 26-14 victory over the down-trodden University of Miami Hurricanes before 26,747 football fans in the Orange Bowl Friday night.

Forbes, 5-foot junior from Basking Ridge, N. J., scored 3 Maryland touchdowns and ripped through the Miami line for great yardage when the Terps went on the march.

With Quarterback Dick Scarbath of Baltimore engineering the drives, Maryland mixed occasional passes with line smashes to out-gain and out-score the homestanding Hurricanes and send the Miamians down to their 6th defeat in 7 games this fall.

Bonnie Yarbrough passed 79 yards to Bob Rosbaugh for Miami's second touchdown in the final quarter to make the score 20-14 but Maryland buckled down and choked off the Hurricanes' attempts to pull it out.

Miami took an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter but Maryland controlled the ball most of the second and held a 13-7 advantage at halftime.

After a scoreless 3rd quarter, Maryland tallied again, driving 77 yards in 19 plays. Three plays later Yarbrough's pass which Rosbaugh caught on the 35 brought the crowd to its feet.

Rosbaugh outran the Maryland secondary for the touchdown and Jim Stevens kicked the extra point to make it 20-14.

Maryland scored again with only 36 seconds left in the game, Bob Rusevlyn taking it over from the one.

Seward Man Is Raising New Type Hunting Dog

By David Clark

Seward — A new kind of hunting dog has come to Nebraska.

The magyar vizsla, for 1,000 years the hunting dog of central European nobility, is being raised by Meurice Graff of Seward.

Graff's vizsla, Maggie, gave birth Nov. 4 to a litter of 8 pups. With this start, Graff plans to expand his breeding of vizslas.

"These dogs have only come to this country in the last four years," Graff said. "They were practically annihilated in World War I and again in WWII."

"Maggie is an excellent hunting dog," he said. "She both points and retrieves, and she's very intelligent."

Graff said the versatility of the vizsla will make the breed popular in this country. He credits the Russian occupation of central Europe for the dog's introduction to the U.S.

"The nobility feared for their lives," he said, "and they fled west, toward America."

The dog is expensive, he said. "I bought Maggie in Washington. I have about $275 in her."

Graff estimates there are about 50 different lines of vizsla in the country.

"As far as I know, Maggie is the only one in Nebraska. There was one brought over by an Omaha woman, but nobody has ever found what become of the dog."

Maggie has a short-haired, rust-gold coat.

"Her disposition makes her an excellent companion dog," Graff said.

Bump Elliott Named New Michigan Coach

Ann Arbor, Mich. (AP) — Young Chalmers (Bump) Elliott was appointed head football coach at the University of Michigan Friday, succeeding Bennie Oosterbaan, his boss for two years.

Oosterbaan, 52, stepped down just before the end of what seems destined to be Michigan's worst season since 1936. The mild-manner giant, an All-America end at Michigan in 1925 and 1927, had held the post 11 seasons.

The blond Elliott looks more the age of one of his players than a head coach at 33. He was a star halfback on Michigan's unbeaten Big Ten champions of 1947.

Oosterbaan will take over in another capacity in the Michigan athletic department after the season's end Nov. 22.

"I'm leaving for a number of reasons," said Oosterbaan.

ELLIOTT . . . 2-year pact.

"My family is one," he continued. "My wife has been after me for years to get out. It's an uneasy life and I have a desire to lead a more normal existence.

"There's a lot of pressure from inside of you. Even when you win there is pressure and you start thinking of the next game. When you lose it is worse."

Michigan has been losing often lately, 4 times in 7 games. It has won two and tied Michigan State. Indiana and Ohio State are yet to be played.

"If I didn't think Michigan football was going to improve, why would I take the job? I don't think Michigan has to say we're all through as a football school," he said.

Elliott, who was Oosterbaan's top aid and backfield coach, reportedly will receive $16,000 annually. Oosterbaan received $19,000 and is expected to take a slight pay cut in his new position.

Anderson, Laver Team For Victory

Adelaide, (AP) — Rallying after dropping the first two sets, Mal Anderson and Rod Laver Friday won the South Australian doubles tennis championship by defeating fellow Australians Ashley Cooper and Neale Fraser 4-6, 6-8, 11-9, 9-7 and 6-3.

This caused further worry among the selectors of the Australian Davis Cup team.

The Aussies haven't been effective in tandem play all year and the Cooper-Fraser pairings here was regarded as the country's best especially as long as Mervyn Rose remains in the official doghouse of the tennis fathers.

McCook—Roger Boles ran 65 yards for a touchdown in the final period here Friday to give Trinidad (Colo.) JC a 24-21 victory over Nebraska JC champion McCook.

Boles' run came after McCook workhorse Fred Hummer had sizzled 48 yards in the 3rd period to put the Indians into a 21-18 lead. Hummer scored all the McCook TDs.

Hummer went 5 and 16 yards for touchdowns to put the Indians ahead 14-12 in the first period, but Trinidad finally found the answer to McCook's offense and went ahead 18-14 at the half.

Arvon Kent rambled 60 yards with a punt and Jerry Guelok and Bill Boaglio took passes from Pat Heminger for the first 3 Trinidad tallies.

The loss left McCook at 6-4 for the season's work.

Players Won't Join 3rd Loop

New York (AP) — The major league baseball players' attorney said Friday his clients would not consider jumping to a renegade 3rd major league if one were formed.

J. Norman Lewis, speaking on behalf of the major league players said they would not be averse to either expansion or to the creation of another big league. It would have to come, however, with the blessing of the club owners.

"The players at their meetings, have discussed both possibilities of expansion," Lewis said. "While they have taken no definite stand, basically there would be no opposition since either move would create more jobs. The players stressed, however, they would cooperate fully with the present owners."

DEACON JONES LEADS BIG 10

Chicago (AP) — Charles (Deacon) Jones of Iowa, won the individual title and Michigan State retained its team crown in the annual Big Ten cross-country meet Friday.

Jones, lagging the first two miles, finished strong to win by about 10 yards over Crawford Kennedy of Michigan State. Jones, a former Nebraska prep ace at Boys Town, was timed in 20:18 for the 4-mile course in Washington Park.

Michigan State's team total was 43 points. The Spartans captured second, 8th, 10th, 11th and 12th places.

Jones overhauled Kennedy in the last 100 yards and simply ran the Spartan jogger into the ground. Minnesota's Buddy Edelen failed to defend the title he won last year. He has an infected leg.

Iowa finished second with 59 points, followed by Indiana, 64, Illinois, 77, and Minnesota, 103. Wisconsin and Northwestern were entered but lacked full teams.

London (AP) — Christine Truman, who defeated Althea Gibson in Wightman Cup tennis matches, was named Britain's top woman player Friday by the Lawn Tennis Assn.

Bayer Takes Golf Lead At Havana

Havana (AP) — Giant George Bayer, the Babe Ruth of modern golf, powered a 6-under-par 64 Friday and seized the halfway lead in the $45,000 Havana International Golf tournament. Bayer had a 139 for 36 holes.

The 6-foot-5, 240-pound former University of Washington tackle holed out a spoon shot for a double eagle deuce on the 509-yard 3rd hole and went on to one of the most phenomenal rounds in professional tournament play.

Bayer, from San Gabriel, Calif., fell short of the Professional Golfers Assn. single round record of 60, but the length of the course and the distracting wind conditions made his feat extraordinary. Half a dozen players hold the record for 18 holes.

Bayer did not have a 5 on his card, and he played every hole in par or better. Besides his double eagle, he had 3 birdies. He also lipped the cup with a putt on the 9th hole and took 3 from the edge of the 14th after almost driving the 410-yard hole.

The Villa Real course which Bayer tamed is a back-breaking, palm-studded layout stretching 7,009 yards along the Florida Straits. Low gusty winds off the straits hit in blasts up to 30 miles an hour over the length of the par 35-35—70 course.

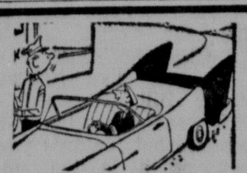

Until Bob Rosburg shot a 69 Thursday for a one-stroke opening round lead, the competitive record here had been 71 shared by Sam Snead and Ben Hogan.

Rosburg, from Palo Alto, Calif., skidded off the pace with a second round 76, which placed him well down in the field at 146.

Bayer had a two-stroke lead over Doug Ford of Yonkers, N.Y., and 23-year-old Tommy Jacobs of Montebello, Calif. They were tied at 141.

Syracuse Nips Waverly 14-7

Lincoln Star Special

Syracuse—Footballers from Syracuse Friday night clinched the South Nebraska Conference crown by tripping Waverly 14-7.

Earlier in the year Syracuse won 14-6 but the rematch was necessary to decide the title.

Waverly scored in the 2nd quarter and held a 7-0 halftime lead but two 2nd-half touchdowns gave the victory to Syracuse.

Waverly	0	7	0	0	—7
Syracuse	0	0	7	7	—14

Waverly: TD, Jeffreg (18, pass from Shepherd). PAT, Smith.

Syracuse: TDs, Gene Nannen (1, run); Rich Kehlenbeck (6, run). PATS, Bruce Smith 2.

Pettit Hits 31

Screening Starts For NAIA Bowl

Kansas City (AP) — The National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics today will begin screening teams for the 4 berths in the 1958 NAIA football championship playoffs.

Winners of the playoffs will advance to the Holiday Bowl game at St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 20.

A. O. Duer, NAIA executive secretary, said it is possible one or more of the teams to be issued invitations will be selected tonight. Records of about 20 teams from member colleges will be reviewed by the selection committee.

The playoffs will be held Dec. 6, on or near the campus of the competing institutions.

Leading the pack is Northeast Oklahoma of Tahlequah, followed by Arizona State (Flagstaff) and Willamette of Salem, Ore. Then come St. Benedict's of Atchison, Kan.; Missouri Valley of Marshall, Mo.; and Gustavus Adolphus of St. Peter, Minn., all undefeated.

East Texas State, with one loss this season, is 7th in the ratings. Kearney, Neb., State, 8th, is undefeated in 9 games.

Moscow Rejects Controlled A-Test Suspension

. . . Geneva Talks Are Set Back

Geneva (AP) — Moscow clearly rejected Friday night an American plan for controlled suspension of nuclear weapon tests. This left the 3-power talks as far away from agreement as on their opening two weeks ago.

In Russia's 1st public comment on the talks since the plan was submitted, Moscow Radio accused Britain and the United States of "clumsy maneuvers" to prevent an immediate, permanent cessation of atomic and hydrogen bomb tests.

The broadcast reiterated the Soviet claim that the 1st task of the Geneva negotiations is to reach agreement on test suspension rather than on an international control system to police such a ban.

Western sources said the United States and Britain regard this as a completely up-side-down approach to the problem. This argument has been the main stumbling block to any progress in the talks since they opened here Oct. 31.

Avenue

American officials had hoped the U.S. plan would open up a possible avenue of East-West agreement on the subject.

The plan, introduced by Ambassador James J. Wadsworth, contained provision for a double commitment. Under it the atomic weapons powers would obligate themselves both to suspend tests and to work for a control system.

The West maintained that only through such a linking of obligations can a safe, meaningful ending of nuclear tests ever be achieved.

Moscow broadcast along statement by Tass, the official Soviet news agency. The broadcast contained no direct analysis of the American plan but attacked the whole concept on which it is based.

The broadcast said if the U.S. and British governments are "really willing to accept the cessation of nuclear weapon tests, the Soviet government, as hitherto, is willing to sign immediately an agreement with them."

Feasible

The broadcast said tests should be suspended because at a summer meeting in Geneva eastern and western scientists agreed that a control system is technically feasible.

But in the western view there is a great difference between stating that control is feasible and actually committing yourself to working out a control system.

Western sources said the conference could begin at once hammering out the provisions for a control system if the Russians ever commit themselves to this idea. The Tass statement indicated Russia is as far away as ever from such a commitment.

A 2nd international conference going on now in Geneva, dealing with problems of surprise attack, has bogged down over East-West differences on scope of the discussions.

Stage Union Executive Speaks Here

Organized labor hopes for consideration, but not for special favors from the new Congress evolving from this month's elections, one of the AFL-CIO's 27 vice presidents said.

Richard F. Walsh, New York, made the statement at the 50th anniversary banquet of Local 151, Stage and Operators Union in Lincoln.

Walsh, who also is president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes and Picture Machine Operators, said labor was especially pleased that 5 out of 6 states voting on right to work laws defeated the proposal.

One of labor's major tasks will be to try to amend a section of the Taft-Hartley Bill, he said.

"We feel this section is wrong in permitting states to vote on a right to work law which, if enacted, gives the state power to overrule federal jurisdiction."

Unemployment needs to be cut down in some areas but the overall picture is in pretty good shape, Walsh said.

He noted there is quite a bit of motion picture unemployment in Hollywood now, but he looked for an upswing in another month.

He said the public is returning to movie going where "there isn't a commercial every few minutes."

Vet Service Unit Need Not Buy Headstones

A county veterans service committee is not required to use funds available for placing headstones on graves of veterans who die with sufficient means to defray their own funeral expenses, the attorney general has ruled.

The opinion, requested by Louis R. Eby, state director of veterans affairs was signed by Attorney General Clarence S. Beck and Assistant Attorney Richard H. Williams.

Single Men In U.S. Far Outnumber Women

Washington (AP)—Single men far outnumber single women in the age group most susceptible to marriage, the government reported today.

This doesn't necessarily mean there aren't enough women to go around.

Part of the difference is accounted for by the fact that women tend to marry younger than men. Also, a Census Bureau spokesman said, some men who are divorced or separated apparently report themselves single while their former mates stick close to the fact.

In all age groups combined single men outnumber single women by 14,300,000 to 11,800,000.

A Better Life Is Promised Russ

Khrushchev Hopes 7-Year Drive Will Outstrip Capitalism

Moscow (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev has promised the Soviet people a better life in his 7-year drive to outstrip capitalism in industrial production.

The Soviet citizens read Friday in Pravda, Izvestia and other newspapers about his program with its strong emphasis on heavy industry, on work and on expansion in every field of Communist endeavor.

They heard about it on Radio Moscow. Teams of commentators explained how Khrushchev in the next 7 years proposes to boost national income by from 62 to 65%, cut the work day to 6 hours, the work week to 5 days and still outproduce even the United States in many areas of the economy.

Look To Youths

The Soviet program, which envisages an 80% boost in gross industrial output by 1965, will lean on a new labor force of millions of school-age youths.

Burglars Hit Three Lincoln Businesses

Two business firm burglaries and one attempt were reported by police Friday.

Intruders reportedly obtained $70 in coins and bills in the break-in of Condon Electric at 1822 N.

The Service Mart at 1025 No. 35th said a record player valued at $104.91 and an undetermined amount of cash were taken. Possibly missing were some small radios, police said.

Meet Star Carrier Lee Smith

A good example of Benjamin Franklin's philosophy, "A penney saved is a penny earned", is Lee Smith, The Lincoln Star Carrier of the Week.

Smith

Lee, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of 1320 Peach, credits his Star route for enabling him to maintain a savings account of more than $200. Lee purchases clothing and provides his own spending money from his route profits which total approximately $33 each 4 week period.

The Everett Junior High School 9th grader lists arithmetic and physical education as his favorite subjects. He is a member of the Glee Club and is sports editor for the school newspaper. Baseball and football are his favorite sports and the past summer he was a member of the F Street Park championship baseball team.

Lee, whose route runs from 11th to 17th and from Rose to South, was recently acknowledged as one of the top 11 Star carrier salesmen in Lincoln when he received the Inland Press Award.

Lee feels he has gained valuable experience on his route and strives to give his customers the best possible service. His recent award and the testimony of his customers will confirm that he has fulfilled his aim.

Embezzling Cases Go To Judge Kokjer

District Judge H. Emerson Kokjer of Wahoo will hear an embezzlement case in Buffalo County in place of District Judge E. G. Reed.

Robert L. Haines, former Kearney justice of the peace and Kearney police magistrate was charged by Buffalo County Attorney Kenneth Gotobed with two counts of embezzlement in connection with a shortage in accounts. Haines resigned both jobs.

Haines asked a continuance and told the Buffalo County Board he would make restitution.

State Auditor Ray Johnson told the county board in September that Haines was short $8,082 in fines turned in to the county treasurer from 1955 until his resignation in August.

The City Council was told Haines was short $2,625.40 on his police magistrate accounts Haines repaid the amount.

At Kearney, it was announced that Judge Kokjer also would hear the case of Joan Gadeke Troyer, former employe of the Kearney water and waste department, who is charged with embezzling $5,607.83 in department funds. Mrs. Troyer has made restitution.

Buffalo County officials said no date for a trial for either Haines or Mrs. Troyer had been set. Both are free on bond.

Robbers Kill Bank Manager

. . . Customer Shot

New York (AP)—A clumsy, trigger-quick team of bandits killed the manager and shot a customer Friday in the robbery of a Queens bank. They smashed glass and herded employes about ruthlessly but got only between $8,000 and $10,000.

One of the bandits cut his leg when he smashed the glass in a teller's cage while vaulting over a railing. Then, as they fled, one of the men tripped and sprawled flat on the floor. Nevertheless, they made their getaway.

Manager James F. Duggan, 55, of the United National Bank on Long Island, was shot through the heart.

Another bullet ricocheted and struck a customer, Edward Wason, 55, in the left leg.

U.S. Output Up A Notch

. . . Reserve Board Says

Washington (AP) — The Nation's industrial output advanced another notch in October to a rate 9% above the recession low, the Federal Reserve Board announced.

In spite of stoppages caused by strikes in the automobile and some other industries, the board's index of production in mines, mills and factories reached 138% of the 1947-49 average.

This compared with 137% in September, but it still was about 5% below the peak rate achieved in the pre-recession month of August, 1957.

The board's monthly summary of business conditions noted that the work stoppages not only limited the gain in production but caused some slight decline in factory employment.

Atomic Rays Likely Key To Keeping Food

Atomic rays may hold the key to preserving food, developing improved crops, controlling insects, feeding cattle and even controlling sprouts on potatoes.

That opinion was voiced by an official of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission at Washington, D.C. He is Dr. Paul C. Aebersold, director for isotopes development, who spoke at the College of Agriculture Friday.

"In short, the use of atomic radiations holds potential for improving the health and well-being of every plant and animal in the future," Dr. Aebersold stated.

"Radiations used for such practical applications can be made available in tremendous quantities as by-products of atomic reactors," he said.

The development of "ray-preserved" food is the first new method of food preservation since freezing and canning, Dr. Aebersold stated. Tests by the U.S. Army Quartermaster Corps show that there are no harmful effects to animals fed food that has been treated by atomic radiation and the food is just as nutritious as the fresh product.

Aids Handling

"But the biggest advantage in ray-preserved meats, for example, lies in reducing handling losses. The meat can be packed at the packing house by experts. This makes it unnecessary to ship bone or fat thereby reducing transportation costs. By the same token, the meat is not bruised in shipping," he explained.

"Ray-preserved meats also do not require low temperatures for refrigeration," Dr. Aebersold added.

"Perishable fruits such as strawberries can be treated with rays to extend their "shelf life." Under present methods of handling strawberries, they start to deteriorate when displayed at room temperatures. Those treated with atomic rays will keep several days longer. Potatoes treated in a similar manner do not develop sprouts even when not kept in refrigeration."

Certain Out-Of-State Deposits Held Taxable In Ruling By Beck

The State of Nebraska may collect taxes from a native corporation doing work in another state and which has on deposit in that other state funds derived from that work on Nebraska's assessment date, Attorney General C. S. Beck ruled.

The opinion was requested by Douglas County Attorney Eugene Fitzgerald who said his query concerned a Nepany doing extensive work in another state.

Funds derived from the firm's contracts are kept in banks outside Nebraska and payments are made from these funds for expenses incurred from the contracts.

The funds are either transferred to the firm's Nebraska headquarters during the period of construction or after work is completed, but are not in Nebraska on assessment date.

The legal question involved, Beck said, is whether these funds acquire such a status for taxing purposes outside Nebraska that a tax imposed by Nebraska would constitute denial of due process of law on the theory that no state can levy a tax on property outside its boundaries.

Beck said the funds do not acquire such a tax status.

He said he based his opinion on the conclusion that any funds involved in such a situation have acquired neither permanent status outside Nebraska nor have they acquired a temporary business status sufficient to prohibit the imposition of a Nebraska tax.

Stocks Bounce Back To High

New York (AP) — The stock market rebounded Friday from the previous session's relapse and roared into new record high ground.

After a hesitant start, the bulls quickly took command and prices moved ahead fairly steadily until near the finish. A little weekend profit taking in the last 30 minutes cut back extreme gains.

Steels, chemicals, airlines, electronics and rubbers scored the best gains among industrials. Motors lagged all day and ended mostly lower. Rails followed a similar pattern.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks closed at $206.60, up $1.20. Industrials gained $2.20, rails declined 10 cents and utilities gained 50 cents. The previous record was set Wednesday at $206.10.

Based on this average, the advance added an estimated 1½ billion dollars to the quoted value of all stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

It wasn't only the stocks included in the average which gained. Of 1,239 issues traded, 641 marked up plus signs while 355 declined. There were 157 new highs for the year and 2 new lows. Volume totaled 4,390,000 shares against 4,200,000 Thursday.

The aircrafts had an erratic day trying to adjust to statements from Washington regarding the nation's missile program. Strikes discouraged buying in motors. Metal shares sold over a fairly broad range.

Of the 15 most active stocks, nine advanced, 4 declined and two closed unchanged.

Stocks on the American Stock Exchange were mostly higher. Volume totaled 1,430,000 shares against 1,350,000 Thursday.

The corporate bond market staged a broad general advance on expanded demand. U.S. government bonds were steady and quiet in light transactions. Rails, industrials and investment quality issues all improved in the corporate list, along with foreign dollar bonds.

Trading mounted to $8,340,000 par value on the New York Stock Exchange from $7,000,000 Thursday.

GRAIN FUTURES UNEVEN FRIDAY

Chicago (AP) — Grain futures brokers showed a decided preference for the nearby contracts in an irregular market Friday on the board of trade.

All December deliveries were steady to firm while the distant contracts sagged under fairly general selling. It reflected, some traders said, a somewhat general feeling that delivery on December contracts may become a bit more expensive when they fall due unless there is a pick-up soon in selling by producers or elevator interests.

Cash offerings have been none too liberal recently and commercial supplies of some grains, particularly wheat, have been on the decline in Chicago.

Present commercial prices are substantially below the government loan figure in almost all grains and opinion is that record volume of wheat, corn and soybeans eventually will end up in government ownership.

Traders, therefore, were understood to be consolidating their positions mainly to the long side of the December and March contracts at the expense of liquidating the longer term options.

Soybeans had the most general support and best gains of the day but they were trimmed near the close by scattered profit-taking for the weekend.

Wheat finished ⅜ cent a bushel higher to 1 cent lower, December $1.96½-⅝; corn ½ higher to 1¼ lower, December old type contract $1.13-12⅝; oats unchanged to ⅜ lower, December 65⅜; rye ⅝ higher to ¼ lower, December $1.32-$1¾; soybeans ⅜ higher to ⅛ lower, November $2.13¼.

CD Hospital Units Slated For 8 State Towns

The office of Civil Defense and Mobilization has approved applications of 8 Nebraska communities for civil defense emergency hospital units, Austin Bacon, deputy state civil defense director said.

The units will be sent to the following towns within 60 days: Beatrice, Grand Island, Scottsbluff, York, Schuyler, Fremont, Wahoo and Blair.

Each unit contains 200 beds, 3 surgical facilities, an X-ray facility, a pharmacy, morgue, and emergency power plant.

Bacon said additional units were available and that he hoped other Nebraska communities would apply.

The units may be used for major natural disasters or for war time emergencies, he said.

U.S. REASSURES NATO ALLIES—

No Basic Defense Changes Planned

Washington (AP)—The United States hastily offered assurance to the NATO allies that it stands by its promise to supply them with medium range nuclear missiles for defense against Soviet might.

The State Department issued a statement to that effect in an obvious effort to head off possible confusion in Europe resulting from a news conference held by Secretary of Defense McElroy.

McElroy said that the farther along that weapons designers move toward perfection of the 5,000-mile intercontinental ballistic missile, the less interesting becomes the deployment of additional 1,500-mile intermediate range ballistic missiles to overseas locations.

The impression was gained by some that the United States was de-emphasizing IRBMs in favor of concentrating on ICBMs based in the United States.

Such a course would mean reversing the program of IRBM bases in Europe which President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles urged upon the North Atlantic allies in a meeting at Paris last December.

"There have in fact been no basic changes in U.S. defense policy," the statement said.

Curtis Accuses Union Of 'Cold Blooded' Drive

Washington (AP) — Sen. Carl Curtis (R-Neb) Friday accused the sheet metal workers union of a "brazen and cold blooded" effort to drive an Ohio factory out of business for bargaining with a rival union.

Curtis' blast marked a hearing before the Senate rackets committee in which F. C. Sawyer, executive vice president of the Burt Manufacturing Co. of Akron, accused the sheet metal workers union of waging economic warfare against his company through loopholes in federal law.

He said it had cost his firm millions of dollars.

Sawyer charged the warfare took the form of secondary boycotts in which the sheet metal workers sought to block contractors and others from installing ventilating equipment produced by Burt, because the company had a collective bargaining contract with the United Steel Workers Union.

O. L. Garrison, assistant to President Dave McDonald of United Steel Workers, backed Sawyer's testimony.

Public Health Assn. Plans Student Section

Plans for a special section of college and high school students who are interested in public health, to be sponsored by the Nebraska Public Health Assn., were discussed at the NPHA executive committee meeting Friday.

Dr. John Thompson, president of the organization also said that a meeting is scheduled to be held in Hastings in March for citizens interested in setting up a local NPHA chapter.

—105 Absentee Votes—

Alleged Dodge Error May Bring Challenge

. . . Official Seal Said Lacking On Envelopes

Fremont, Neb. (AP)—The possible challenge of 105 absentee votes cast in Dodge county was under consideration Friday because of an alleged error in the county clerk's office.

Dodge County Attorney William Line said the action of County Clerk C. H. Dahl in affixing his seal to a number of absentee ballot envelopes after the ballots inside them had been counted "might knock all of them out." He said Dahl's action was "highly improper."

Party Chairman's Watch

County Democratic Chairman Harry J. Foy, who with GOP Chairman Walter Witthof, was watching the ballot count, previously had questioned the ballots on the ground that there was no official seal on the envelope in which the ballots were kept until counted.

Dahl subsequently began affixing his seal to the contested ballot envelopes. Dahl said he had been advised that "you can't deny a person a vote because of a mistake made in the county clerk's office."

Foy indicated there was little likelihood he would take his challenge into court if the Democrats win out in close races, but he could not predict what might be done if the statewide margins were exceedingly thin.

Democratic gubernatorial Candidate Ralph Brooks and treasurer candidate Richard Larsen both were ahead in Dodge County but Republican Lt. Governor Dwight Burney had a substantial margin over Democrat Frank Sorrell, on the basis of the official canvass and counting of mail votes. Margins were long enough in all 3 cases so they could not be reversed by tossing out the 105 votes.

Demo Hanson Boos Miller's Defeat Story

Newcastle, Neb. — Democratic State Chairman Russell Hanson took issue with a comment attributed to Republican Rep. A. L. Miller of Kimball suggesting that his defeat was attributable to his own flip-flops on the Benson issue plus the fact that Fourth District voters . . . were tired of 'mail from Miller' congressional service."

They decided to change to "McGinley measures and methods," Hanson said. "There is no point in concluding his (Miller's) congressional service with carping curb-stone criticisms or comments on the reason for his defeat."

Miller had been quoted as saying that he ran against United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther while McGinley ran against Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson with the result that "Reuther won."

At the same time, Hanson paid tribute to Democratic National Committeeman Bernard Boyle of Omaha and Executive Secretary Robert B. Conrad of Genoa for leadership in "this most aggressive Democratic campaign in the memory of Nebraska politics."

Cousins Contest E. C. Eppley's Will

Omaha (AP) — A petition contesting the will of the late Eugene C. Eppley, Omaha hotel man, was filed in Douglas County Court by 5 of Eppley's first cousins, once removed.

They charged, among other things, that the will was executed "as a result of improper and undue influence by those who are substantial beneficiaries and those who occupied confidential relationship" to Eppley.

They also alleged that Eppley was not of sound mind or possessed of testamentary capacity "by reason of illness and old age" at the time the will was made out. The will included bequests of $1,972,-

Kearney County Seeks GOP Reorganization

Minden, Neb. (AP) — Dean Tucker, Minden attorney, was elected chairman of the Kearney County Action Committee, a newly organized group designed to rebuild the county Republican organization.

Ray Van Norman was elected secretary.

In other official actions the committee adopted a resolution commending State Chairman R. E. Spelts Jr., of Grand Island for his leadership of the party.

The 50 persons attending the meeting agreed that Republican losses in Nebraska this year occurred because party members didn't work as hard as the Democrats.

Tucker said the action committee plans to hold reguiar meetings, expand its membership and set up an organization that will advance the cause of the Republican party all the time and not just in the few weeks before election.

He pointed out that Kearney County is usually Republican but in the recent election only two Republican candidates—Sen. Roman Hruska and Rep. Phil Weaver —carried the county.
